FOREWORD

The year 1967 has been a year of change at Southeastern, and we of the Le Souvenir staff have attempted to record in pictures and words the activity of life that accompanied that change. Progressive change is good, necessary, and required. To live is to be able to assimilate new thoughts, ways, and ideas of the day to the best interest possible. To want a life like the "good old days" is to labor under false pretenses, in fact, to desire what really never existed. It should be the student's desire to see this progressive change continue, to use it to better his academic surrounding, and to provide a greater depth of reason for a higher education.

Look to this day for it is life,
The very life of life.
In its brief course lie
all the verities
and realities of your existence:

The Bliss of Growth
The Splendor of Beauty
The Glory of Action.

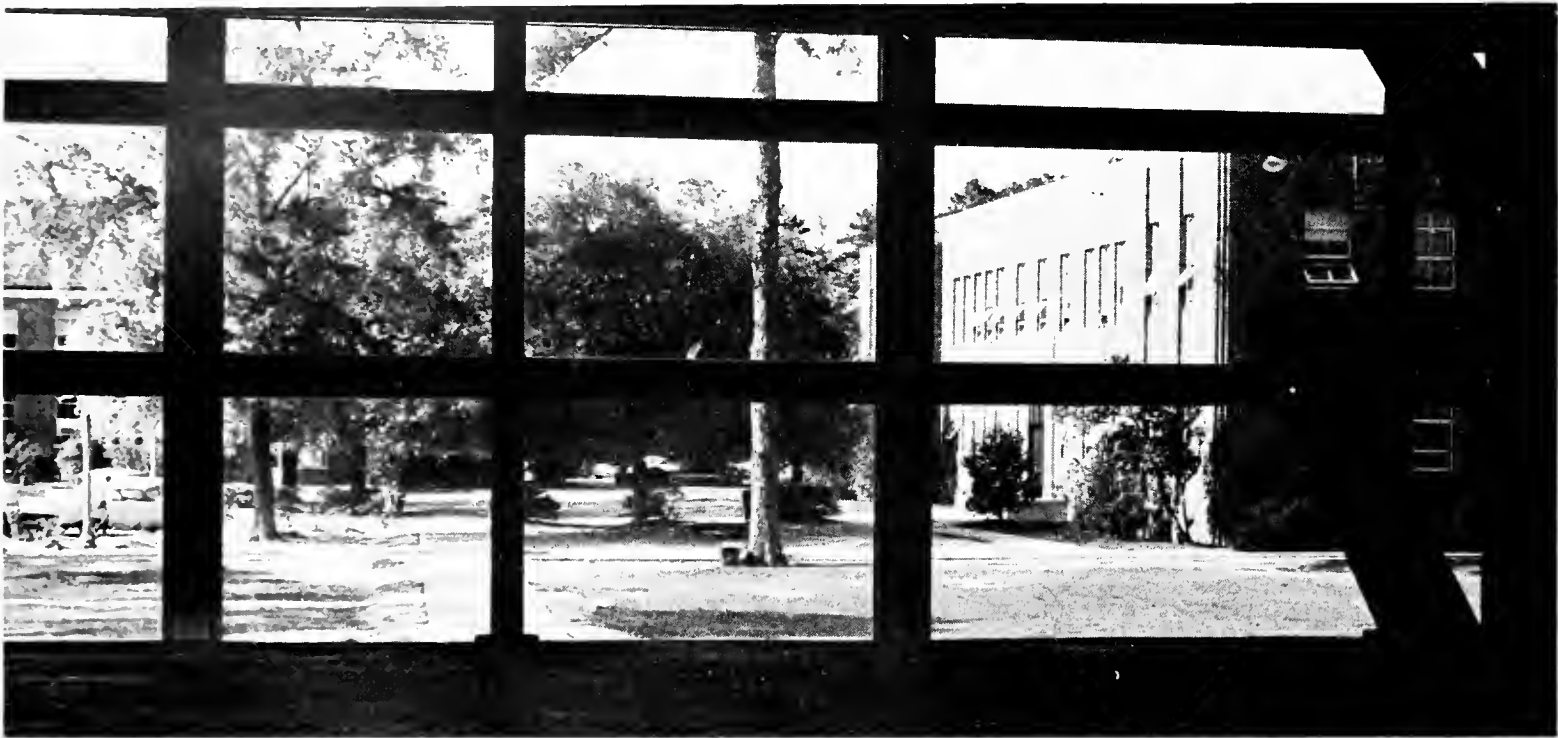

For yesterday is but a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision.
But today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow
a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day.

In my beginning is my end ...

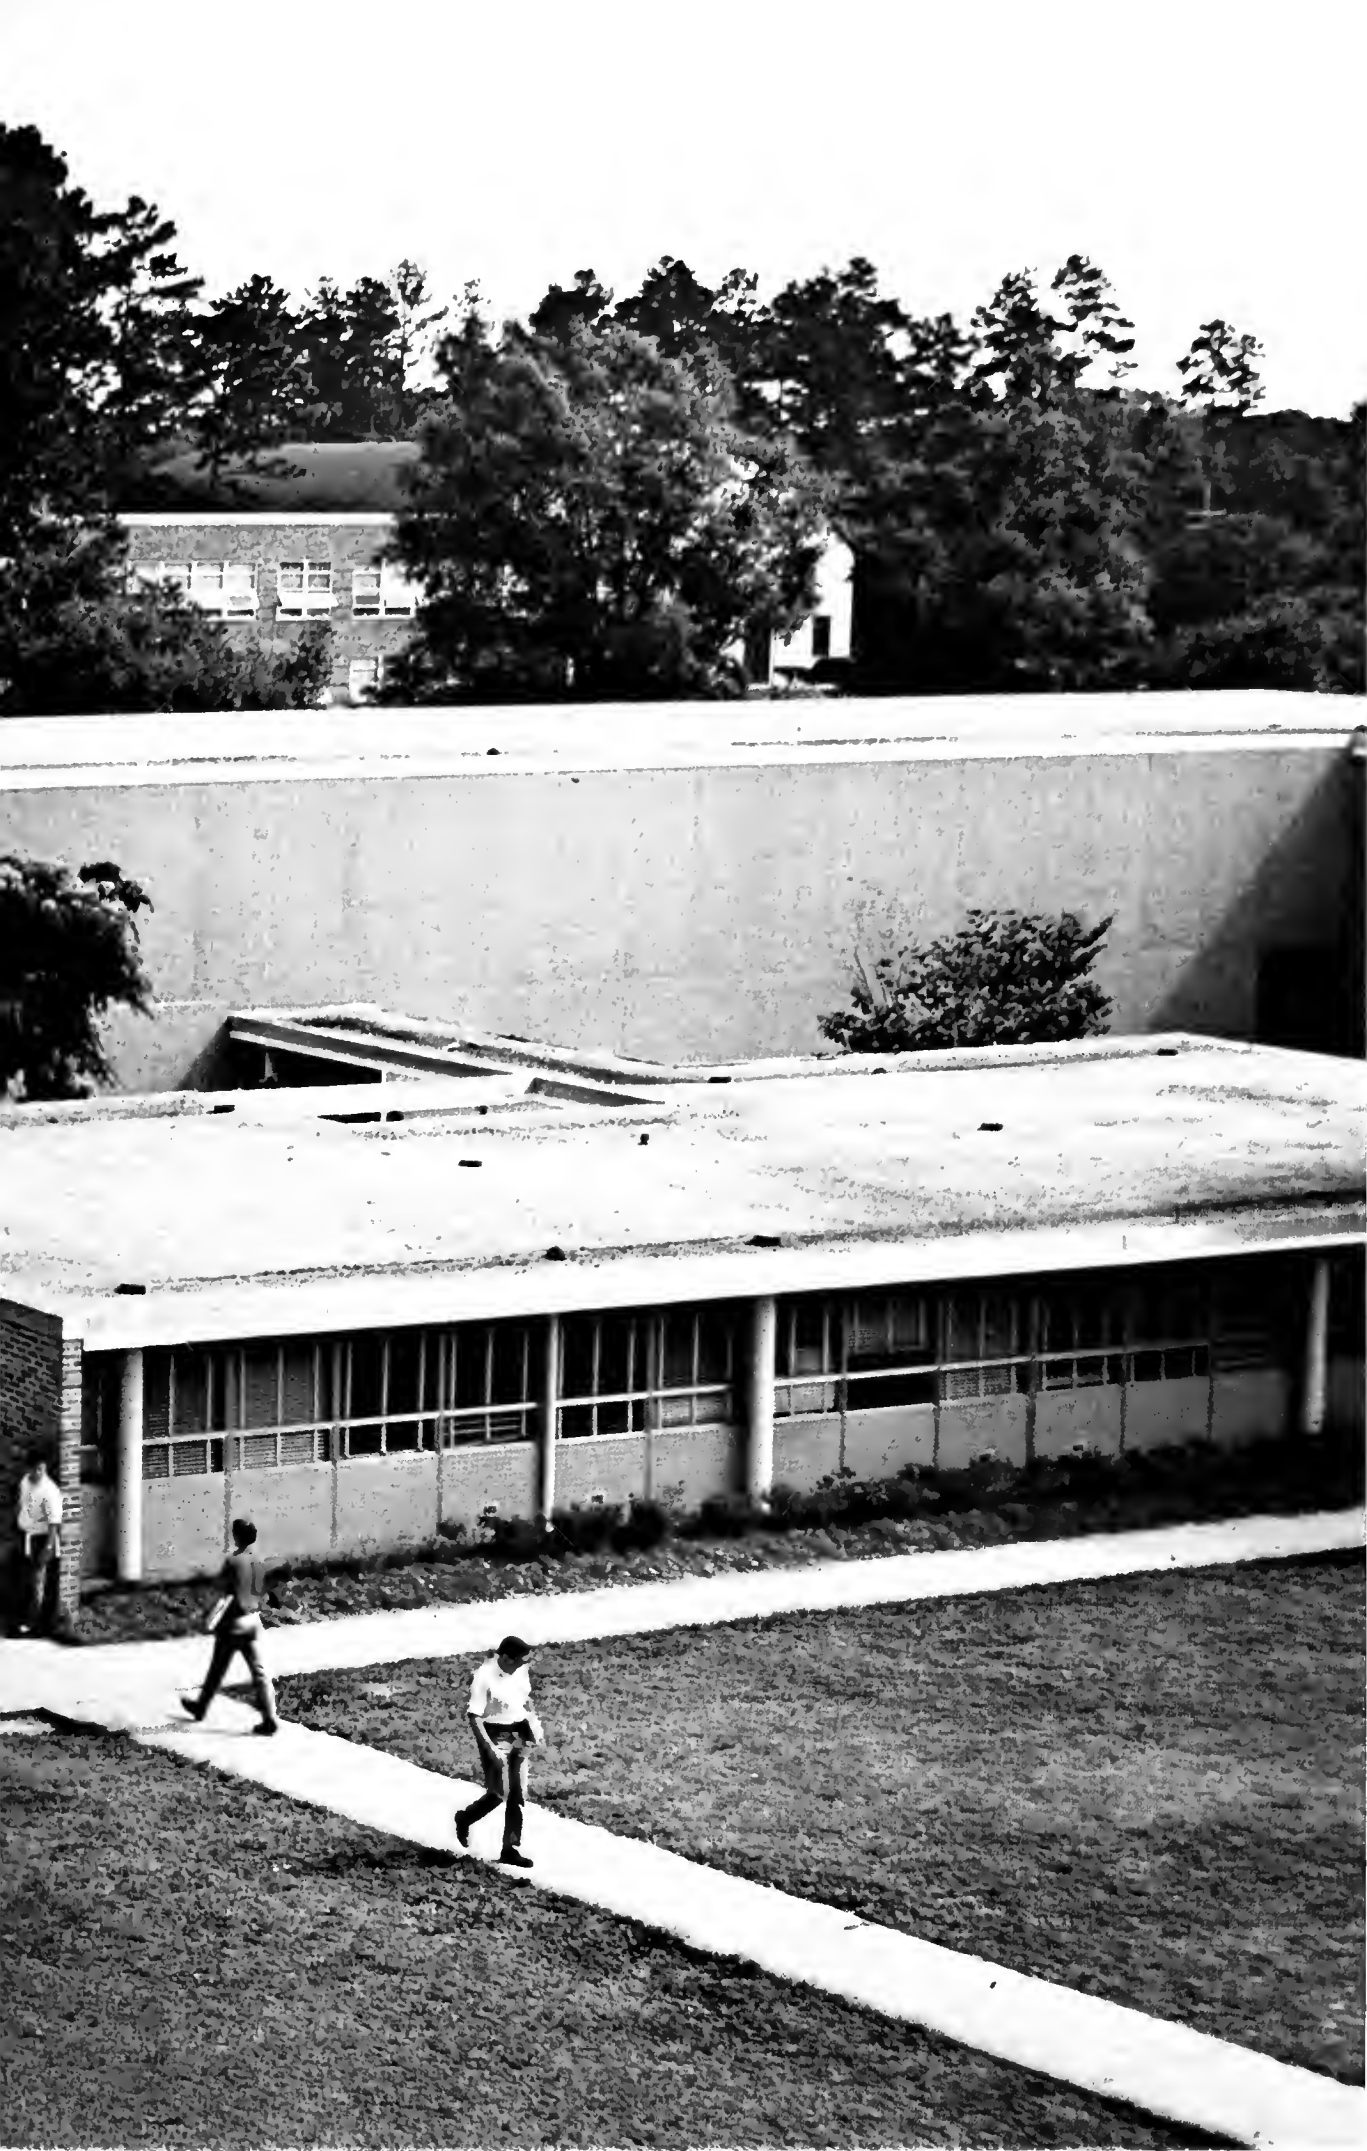

In my end is my beginning.

STUDENT LIFE

The typical beginning of every semester—the long wait in the rain—to get the packets in order to begin the run through the obstacle course of registration.

REGISTRATION

Registration is the great equalizer on the campus. For the student with the physical strength and fortitude, it is just a matter of struggling through the great obstacle course in the least amount of time with the greatest number of correct course cards. For the not-so-fit student, or for the beginning freshman, registration is a traumatic experience.

However, it is possible to stumble out of the book store on the day one started to register — provided one started at 8:00 a.m.

With such an ordeal out of the way, the student is almost eager to relax by attending his classes.

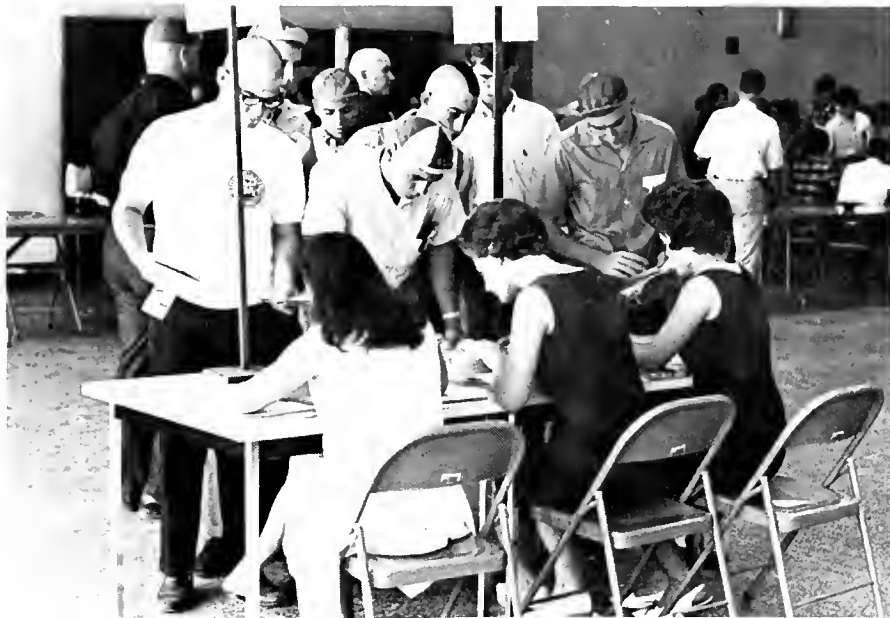

For the lucky ones who get inside the buildings, the countless forms beckon.

Which form do they want here?

"Follow the black and white signs, follow the black and white signs, follow the black and white signs," becomes the theme of the day.

Do you have your I.D. card, your home address card, your selective service card, your campus mailing address, your test scores, and your student number? If not, please return to the first stop and begin again.

Almost there—after filling out the final forms all the students do is pay their fees and collapse.

Burning the midnight oil for finals is commonplace in the girls' dorms.

Study may beckon any place, anywhere, even under the tree by the bookstore.

Last minute term projects are done late at night.

PREPARATION

A book's eye view of students!

A typical ash tray during finals.

Some people take the opportunity to read the magazines available in the library.

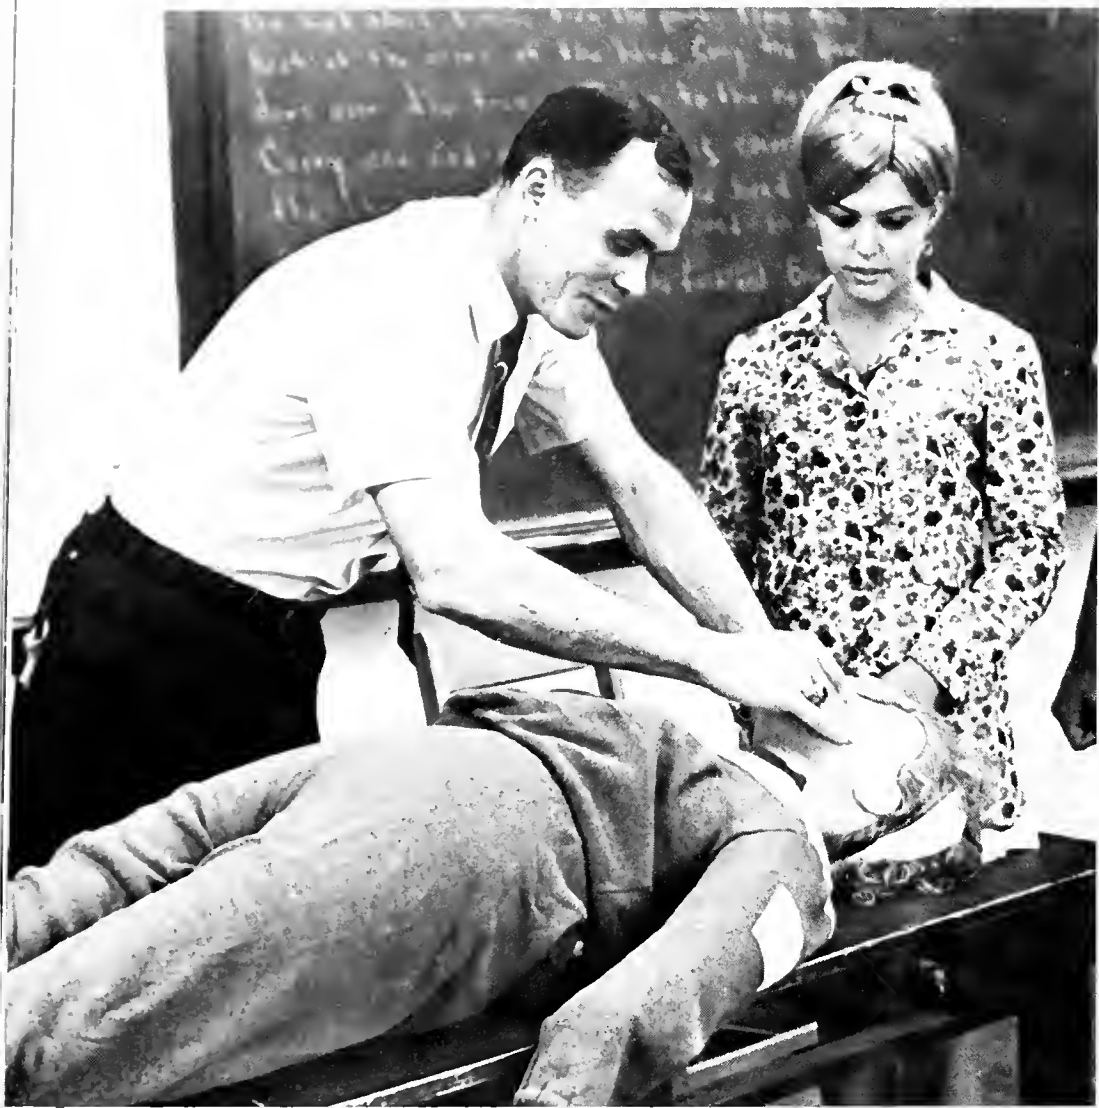

Another aspect of the academic life on campus is study. After hours spent in class, the weary student often spends large amounts of time in the library preparing for future assignments. Once the material is gathered, it must be sorted, arranged, typed, and proofed before it is handed in.

Once assignments are done, the conscientious student retires to his books to review his notes or to read the material for the next day's work.

Couples enjoy studying together.

PARTICIPATION

Students learn the correct methods of administering artificial respiration on a practice dummy.

Note the concentration!

Mr. Bateman, left, watches closely as a student examines a plant in Plant Judging class.

Dr. Jackman lectures in class.

The eternal routine—class, lectures, tests! It seems that all students ever do is go to class, take notes or doodle, watch the clock, and wait for the bell to ring. Strangely enough, some do manage to learn while they are here; perhaps there is yet hope for those struggling freshmen.

HOOTENANNIES

A hootenanny is defined as an informal party usually featuring folk singing and/or dancing. Southeastern witnessed many hootenannies throughout the college year.

Students sat on the floor at some, or they sat in chairs. Students sang at some, or they just listened. At all hootenannies, however, most students were well pleased with the entertainment.

Southeastern's annual homecoming festivities climaxed with the SLC-McNeese football game in Strawberry Stadium. Before the game, however, there was the bonfire sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon and the Alpha Omicron Pi-sponsored Homecoming Parade. Decorating dormitories, attending parties, getting soaked—all were a part of Homecoming 1966.

BLOOMER BOWL

The annual Bloomer Bowl game was played in Strawberry Stadium before a most enthusiastic crowd. Sponsored by Student Government, the game saw the more-experienced upper-classmen defeat the alien freshman girls. The Bloomer Bowl king and his court were presented during the half-time ceremonies and later at the dance after the game.

GREEK RUSH

Smiles, handshakes, forced small-talk: many are the steps to become a Greek. Twice each year the fraternities on campus sponsor smokers to meet inspiring Greeks while the sororities host teas to meet their rushees. The rushing procedure was updated again this year to meet the ever-increasing demand of the increasing enrollment.

CHRISTMAS: SOUTHEASTERN STYLE

Santa brings good food to the SLC cafeteria.

The Modern Dance Group gives its annual Christmas program in the new cafeteria.

Annually at Christmas time, the cafeteria staff treats students to a Christmas banquet Southeastern style. For the banquet the staff decorates the tables with tablecloths and candles and the cafeteria with Christmas trees, holly, and ornaments. Members of the college faculty and staff also attend the banquet. In addition, the Modern Dance Group presents its annual interpretative Christmas Dance in the cafeteria.

Christmas trees decorated the cafeteria for the banquet.

Candles and tablecloths gave the banquet a festive atmosphere.

Many students dressed in coats and ties for the dinner.

Students stop dancing and listen to the band.

DANCES AND STOMPS

The first stomp attracted many new freshmen.

Dances proved very popular at Southeastern during the school year. Theta Xi Fraternity sponsored the first dance of the year following the SLC-Southern Mississippi football game. Other dances included the Homecoming dances, the many fraternity and sorority balls, the weekly Student Government stomps, the Rebel Ball, and the Greek Ball. Most of the dances were held in the Union Ballroom.

The college dance band—The Scholars—provided the music at many of the campus dances.

The dance floor was often crowded for the slow dances.

The fraternity and sorority sweethearts were presented at the Greek Ball.

LEISURE TIME

Not all of a student's college life is spent in the classroom; in fact, most of his time is spent in leisure. At Southeastern many students spend their free time conversing with friends in the snack bar, watching television, or just plain watching television.

APRIL SHOWERS

If April showers bring May flowers, the Southeastern campus should have resembled a tropical paradise during May. Jupiter Pluvius, the god of rain, emptied the heaviest showers in many years on the campus in April. The rains caused flooded buildings, soaked students, and an unexpected two-day holiday.

Newspapers served as umbrellas for the rains.

The campus was still wet the following day.

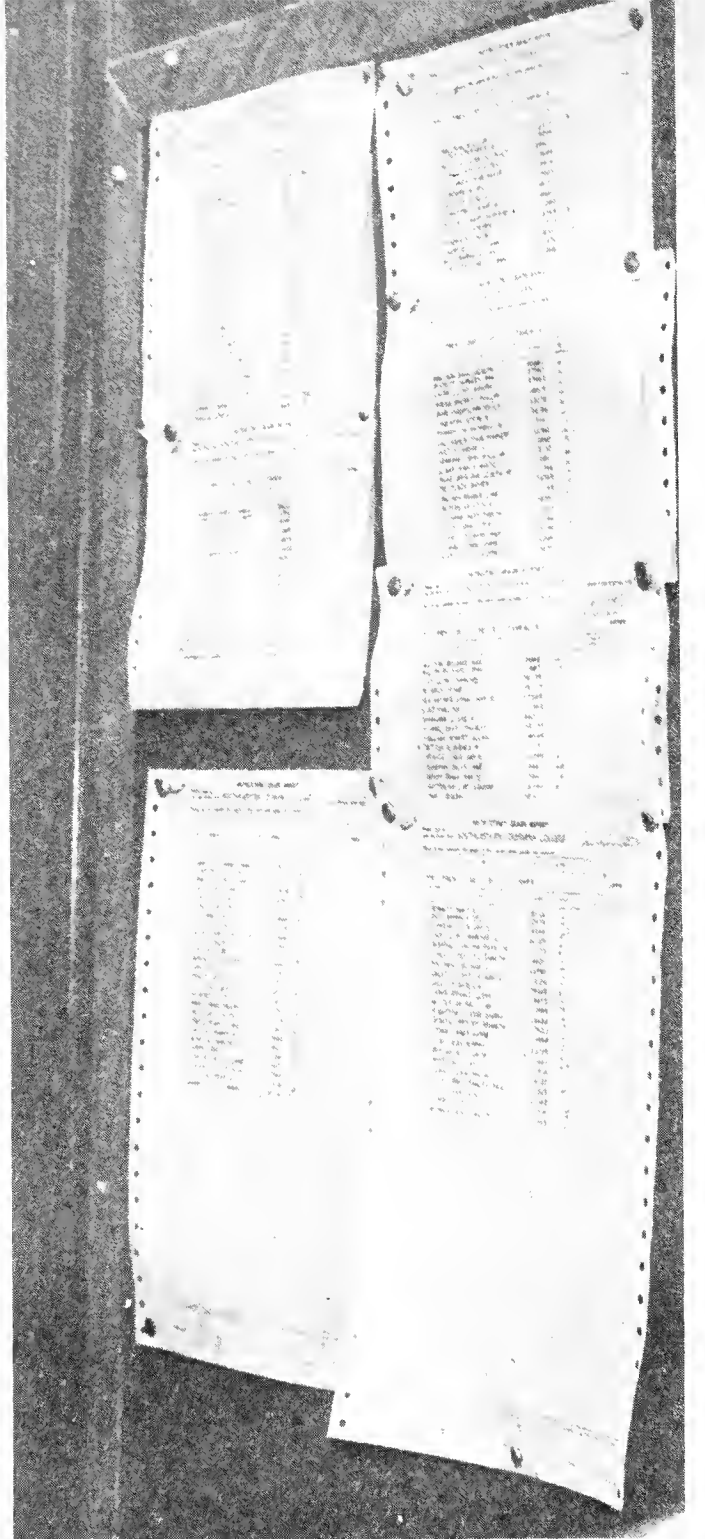

With or without shoes, everyone was soaked.

ANTICIPATION

Concluding each semester, students must wait uncertainly for a day or two before final grades are posted. Reactions range from "I got my B after all!" and "Hey look; I made a D !" to comments expressing less glee.

PRESENTATIONS

Each year, at the end of the school session, the college recognizes the outstanding achievements of the students.

An awards convocation is held in the auditorium, and the various awards, certificates, and plaques are presented.

In this way, the administration is able to promote and encourage competition and scholarship among the students.

GRADUATION—WHAT IT'S ALL FOR

Graduation is the culmination of four years of hard work—the immediate reason for all of the happiness and tears of college — the step before a student realizes the real reason for the inclusion of all of the required courses, that, together with those of his major, make up an Education.

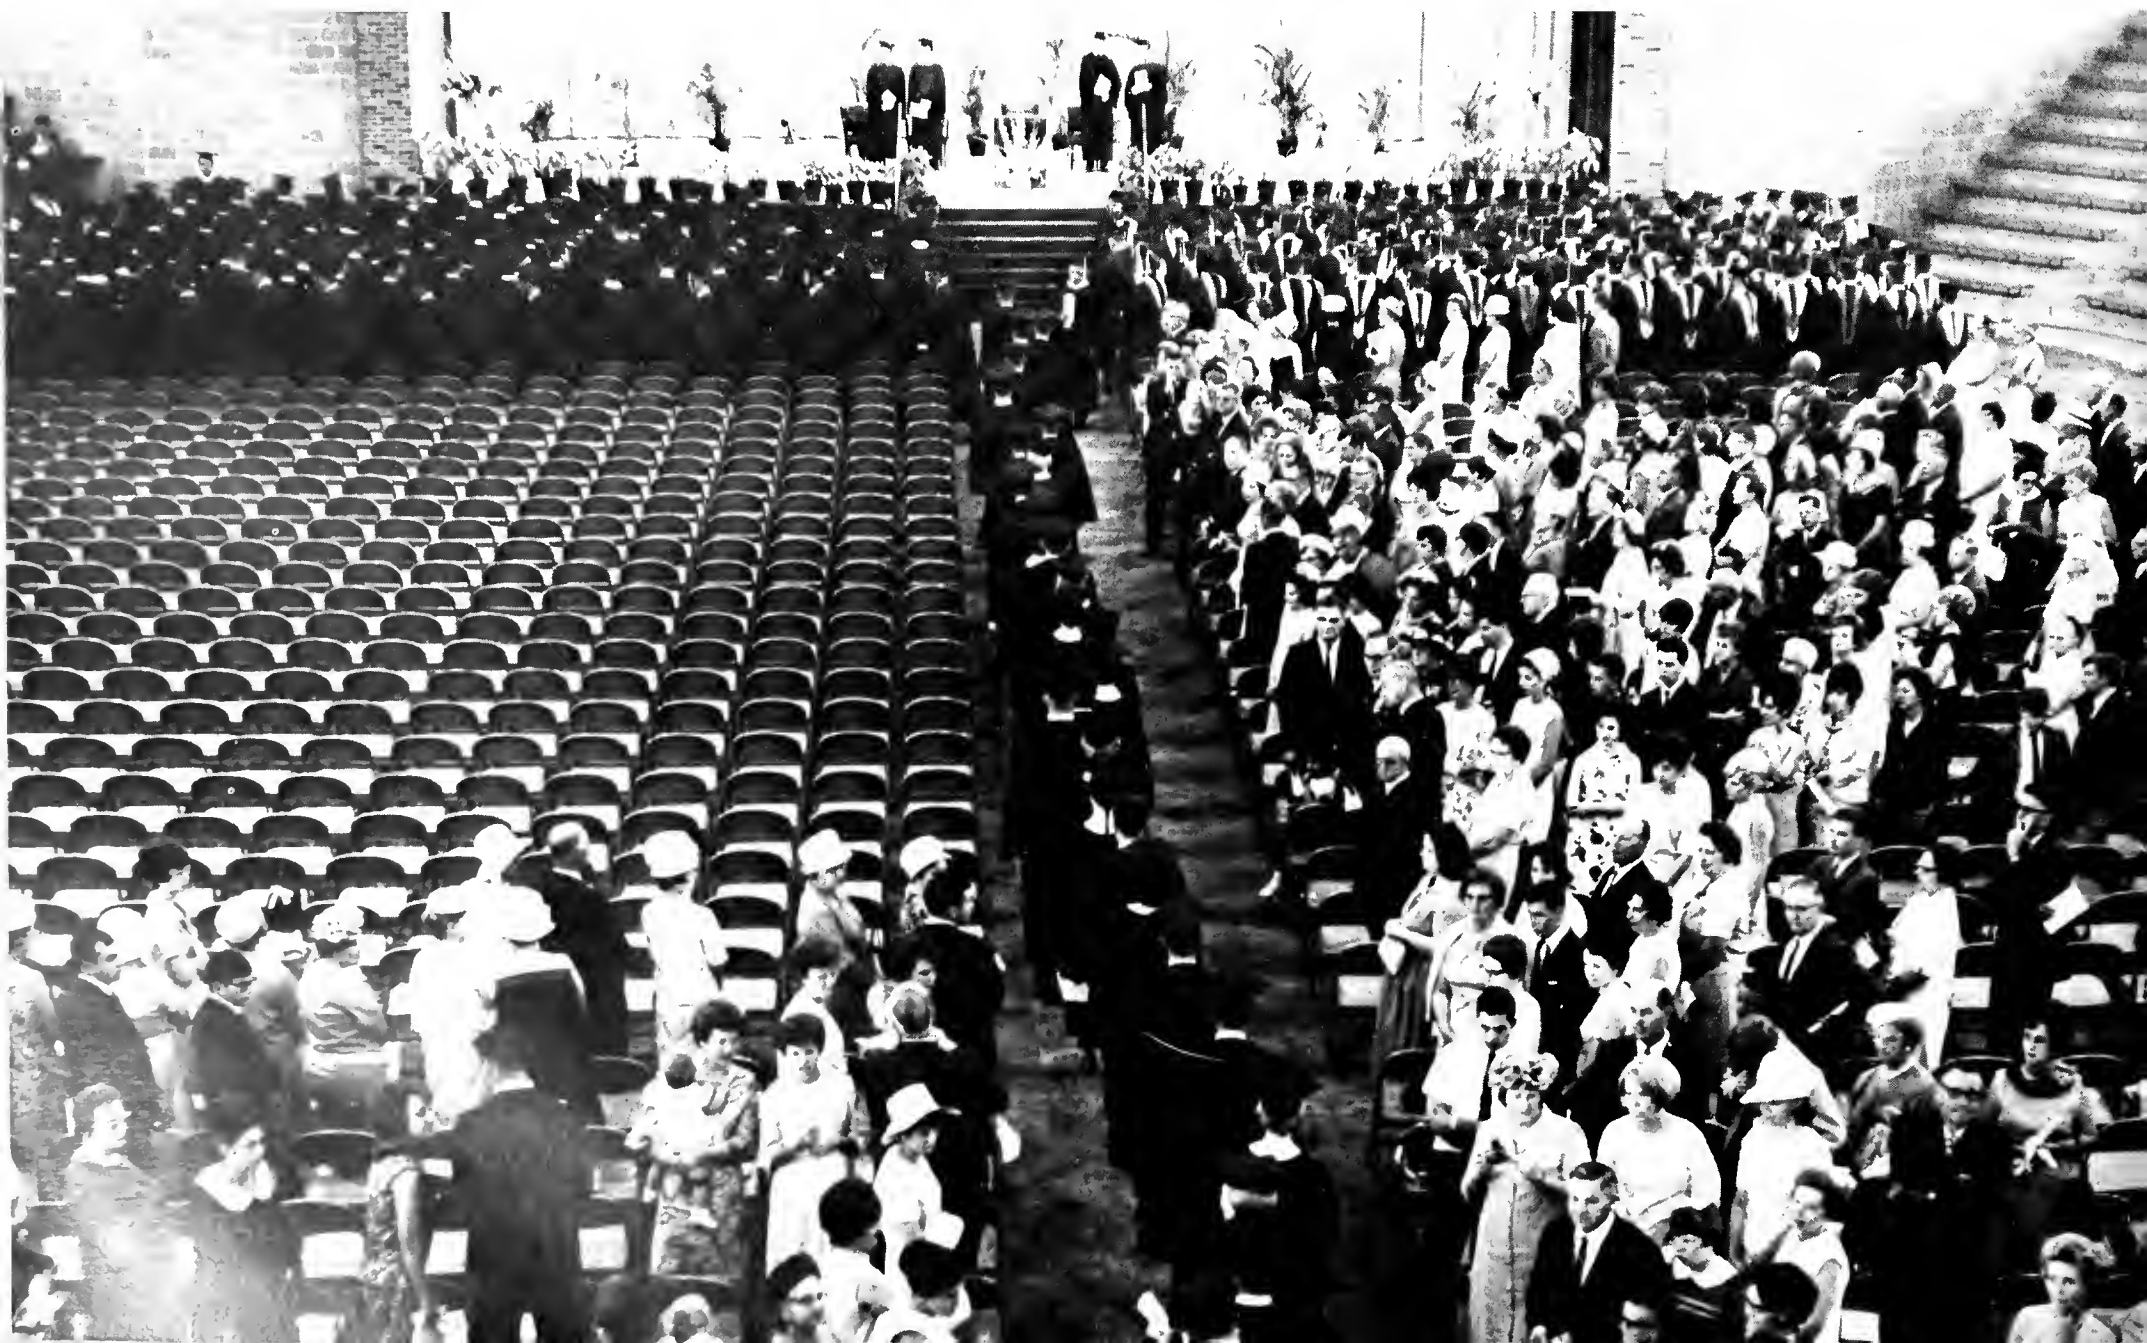

Graduating in the class of 1967 were six hundred and eleven students, twenty-four with high honor and thirty-two with honor. Cheryl Henderson, the Valedictorian, is the first student ever to graduate from Southeastern with a 4.0 average. Raymond Cardaronella was the Salutatorian.

The Baccalaureate speaker was the Rev. Edward R. Thomas, minister of the First Methodist Church of Minden. The Commencement speaker was Dr. William David McCain, president of the University of Southern Mississippi.

ACTIVITIES

True beauty is the product of a moment's reflection

Beauty appears in many forms judged according to individual tastes. It can be the alluring smile of a reigning beauty, loss of composure during a moment of revelation, or the spontaneous smile of an unsuspecting coed. It is in a person intertwined with her moral being, inseparable, unchangable, and constantly showing.

MISS SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA COLLEGE

Miss Lindy Lou Hood

Standing in regal grace amidst the quiet beauty of a traditional courtyard is vivacious Lindy Lou Hood, Miss Southeastern, 1966.

Lindy Lou, a senior elementary education major from Fluker, Louisiana, is the President of her state and local chapters of the Student Louisiana Teachers Association and Vice-President of Phi Mu sorority. With a 3.2 overall scholastic average, she is a member of the honorary Thirteen Club and Kappa Delta Pi.

Rounding out her field of interest, Lindy Lou enjoys cooking, sewing, and traveling. She enjoys preparing snacks and weekend meals for herself and her friends in the dormitory. Lindy talks avidly of her past travels to Hawaii and Europe and her plans to visit other parts of the United States and Canada before beginning her teaching career.

Spotlights reveal the special magic of the stage

The stage is a medium of self-expression. It is the individual striving to emphasize the "I" in unique, trying to find himself, and proving to the world he is not afraid. Whether the reward is success or failure, a new person is born: enlightened, eager, and perhaps, wiser than before.

THE TEMPEST

The first Lyceum show of the year was the professional touring group which presented The Tempest.

The show was under the sponsorship of Alkahest Attractions from Atlanta, Ga.

The production of the play appealed to the majority of the students, because the group played the lines for the laughs. All the comedy scenes were exaggerated for the fullest advantage of slap-stick humor. The Tempest will never be the same.

The beautiful Miranda falls asleep while waiting for Ferdinand.

Stephano, the butler, tries to decide what strange creature lies in front of him with two heads.

Miranda pleads for her father's mercy on the stranded Ferdinand.

The cast toasts themselves as
"the upper-crust."

The Decline and Fall of the Entire World as Seen Through the Eyes of Cole Porter, Revisited.

"I want a primitive man," sang a primitive woman.

The sprightly cast of the Cole Porter cavalcade performed beautifully and gave a great deal of pleasure to the audience. The show was a spoof, and yet a great tribute to a great composer. The cast joined in a medley of the most famous songs for the finale.

"Me and my baby"

Gerald Moore, the first Lyceum performer, presented an accompanist's workshop on the piano entitled, "Music and Mirth."

John Ciardi, speaking on "The Longest Walk in the Universe" — Dante's trip in the Inferno. Mr. Ciardi is the Saturday Review's Poetry editor.

Kenneth McCormick, the vice-president and editor-in-chief of Doubleday gave an interesting lecture entitled, "Behind the scenes in Publishing."

LYCEUM SERIES

The individual performers in the 66-67 year included both speakers and performers.

Gerald Moore, the English pianist accompanied certain SLC music students, besides performing several pieces. At the close of the session, he presented a lecture on music.

John Ciardi presented a lecture on the poet Dante, and his long journey through the Inferno.

Kenneth McCormick of Doubleday spoke on the problems and experiences of a major publisher. His talk was spiced with personal anecdotes concerning Doubleday authors.

Carlos Montoya, the renowned flamenco guitarist, performed many popular numbers from the beautiful Malaguena to the catchy St. Louis Blues —all in the flamenco style.

Sergui Luca performed several magnificent numbers, pleasing the audience with his violin performance.

Dr. Max Lerner, one of America's outstanding political scientists, spoke on those events which he has observed that are shaping the world. His background for his speech is a first-hand knowledge of the problems, for Dr. Lerner has traveled extensively.

The final guest was Eugene Pridonoff, the pianist. His selections included arrangements by Bach, Chopin, Schubert, and Beethoven.

Carlos Montoya, the famed guitarist, performed many flamenco numbers for his captivated audience.

Another of the many magnificent performers on the Lyceum agenda was Sergui Luca, a great violinist.

Dr. Max Lerner, a former Communist, lectured on "America and the World in 1975."

The final Lyceum guest of the year was pianist Eugene Pridonoff.

John Buchanan (Clyde Reasoner) offers Miss Alma (Cynthia Miller) some applejack brandy while renewing her acquaintance in the park.

Following the fight over the stolen hat, Alma has but one thought which she sobs to her mother (Jean Murphy), "Heaven have mercy."

Alma introduces Johnny to her Tuesday night reading group.

Rev. Winemiller (Jimmie Cranke) tries to hush Mrs. Winemiller at the concert in the park.

Dr. Buchanan, Sr. (Richard Pierce) tries to comfort Miss Alma during the trying summer.

SUMMER AND SMOKE

Tennessee Williams' Summer and Smoke was the first play offered by the Department of English and Speech for the year. Under the capable direction of Dr. Harry W. Smith, the large cast performed beautifully, bringing the heart-rending play to the stage in all its beauty and sadness.

ONE ACTS

This year, the play production students offered two thought-provoking works: The Unsatisfactory Supper, by Tennessee Williams, and The Chairs, by Eugene Ionesco.

Steve Bellas directed The Unsatisfactory Supper, which showed the problems faced by the elderly who have no one to turn to and no place to go. Carroll Nox portrayed Baby Doll Bowman; Cheryl Cheatham, the elderly Aunt Rose; and Steve Ruppe, the unsympathetic Archie Lee Bowman.

The Chairs, a tragic farce by Ionesco was directed by Gloria Williams. Jean Murphy Lusk ably performed the role of the Old Woman, and Richard Pierce did an equally magnificent job as the Old Man. Clyde Harrelson rounded out the cast as the Orator.

"Why can't someone else in the family take her?"

Baby Doll (Carroll Nox), Aunt Rose (Cheryl Cheatham), and Archie Lee (Steve Ruppe)

"You could have been head general, head journalist, head baker, head artist, instead of just general factotum." The Old Woman (Jean Murphy Lusk) and the Old Man (Richard Pierce) await the coming of The Orator.

Lighting the lamp while waiting for the guests and The Orator is the task of The Old Woman.

The Duke of Norfolk (Pat Reed) appeals to Richard's sense of justice while the Lord Marshall (Eric Bethancourt) and John of Gaunt (Steve Bellas) listen attentively.

Richard II

Richard visits the dying Gaunt

The usurper, Bolingbroke, gains the throne.

The Bishop of Carlisle (Richard Schopp) and the Duke of Aumerle (Russ Copping) look on suspiciously as Bolingbroke pays his respects to the King.

Bolingbroke (David Ramsey) plots with the Duke of York (Pierre de la Barre) to overthrow Richard.

RICHARD II

Richard II, one of Shakespeare's most artistic plays, was the final production of the school year.

The play, showing the overthrow of the rightful king by the usurper, Bolingbroke, was very well received by the student body.

The play was directed by Mr. Dwain Hern- don; Dr. Harry W. Smith designed the set.

MODERN DANCE

The entire group performs a number by the flickering candlelight.

"The Passion," the opening number of the Spring Dance Concert was choreographed by Mrs. Adams.

The Modern Dance group was very active this year. In the fall semester, the group provided the entertainment at the annual Christmas dinner. Later, in the spring, they provided the students with a superb show.

The spring concert provided the members of the group with the opportunity to choreograph several numbers themselves. Ann La-Nasa did an original number entitled, "Voodoo a la Creole," and DeLois Jensen did "The Hanging." Besides the two student-choreographed numbers, the group performed "The Passion," choreographed by Mrs. Adams; "Espagnole," by Mrs. Friedrichs; and "Ten Shots of Tequila," by the Intermediate Modern Dance Group.

DeLois Jensen, center, performs the dance she choreographed, "The Hanging."

Later in the year, they performed Faure's Requiem, and Kodaly's Te Deum in conjunction with the college chorus.

WINTER CONCERT

Mr. Robert Weatherly, Band Conductor, leads the band in its performance.

The fall program for the Symphonic Band was composed of arrangements of selections by noted composers. These included: "The Royal Fireworks Music" by George Frederick Handel; "Symphony for Brass and Percussion, Opus 16" by Gunther Schuller; "Petrouchka Suite" by Igor Stravinsky; "Jazz Suite," Robert Mersey; and "Harry Janos Suite," Zoltan Kodaly.

The band performs under the direction of Mr. Weatherly.

SPRING CONCERT

Intricate scores are practiced endlessly.

The spring concert, directed by Mr. Robert Weatherly, closed the stage for the year. The 56 member band played several selections and transcriptions which included the following:

Wagner's "Overture to the Flying Dutchman"

Schupert's "Symphony No. 8 in B Minor,"

Miaskovsky's "Symphony No. 19 for Symphonic Band,"

Prokofieff's "Suite from the ballet Romeo and Juliet."

THE MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR

Mrs. Ford (Natalie Schuppert) and Mrs. Page (Joy Ratliff) hide Falstaff in a clothes trunk so he can escape from the jealous Mr. Ford (Clyde Reasoner).

Fenton (Donald Smith) defiantly vows he will wed Anne Page.

The lovers, Anne and Fenton, reaffirm their love.

The timid Slender (Bud Jeansonne) reflects upon his actions to gain Anne's love.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Page consider their attempt to embarrass Mr. Ford and Falstaff.

The first production of the year by the Music Department was the comic opera, The Merry Wives of Windsor.

Mr. Robert Weatherly was the musical director and conductor of the happy work.

In the opening scene, Mrs. Ford confides in her friend, Mrs. Page, that she has received a crude love letter from an unattractive Sir John Falstaff. The two women decide to teach him a lesson.

In the meantime, Anne Page enters, thinking of her love, Fenton. Mr. Page enters with two of her suitors, the timid Slender, and the blustering Dr. Cajus. Fenton appears and asks Mr. Page for Anne's hand in marriage. Because he is penniless, he is rejected, but he swears that he will wed Anne despite ever obstacle.

Falstaff visits Mrs. Ford, and must escape hidden in a trunk.

Anne Page slips into the woods to meet Fenton and they reavow their love.

The young lovers are united, and Falstaff finally repents his actions while the townspeople enjoy the laughter and merriment.

Sir John Falstaff (Weldon Fortenberry) and his friends relax at the Garter Inn.

SOUTH PACIFIC

The final Music Department musical for the year was the Rogers and Hammerstein production, "South Pacific."

From the opening scene to the closing one, the audience was held spell-bound by the music, the dancing, and of course the story of the two pair of lovers.

Ensign Nellie Forbush, from Little Rock, finds romance in the mysterious islands of the Pacific, but the very fact that she is from the mainland U.S. makes it difficult for her to adjust to the customs of the islands. Although she thinks that she loves Emile DeBecque, she cannot be sure.

When young Lt. Cable is sent to the island to establish a radio post, he is entranced by the beauty and mystery of Bali Hai. While on the island, he falls in love with Liat, a Tonkinese girl. Joe Cable realizes that this love cannot last until the war is over, for he is on a dangerous mission. He leaves the heart-broken Liat, never to return from the mission.

Emile DeBecque does, finally, return from the mission unharmed, and Nellie promises to marry him, for she realizes that her happiness is there in the islands, and not on the mainland. Her love is on Bali Hai, the "special island."

Nellie and Emile plan for the future.

Ensign Forbush (Natalie Schuppert) and Seaman Luther Billis (Pat Reed) do "Honey Bun" at the talent show on the base.

Liat (Becky Kong) and Lt. Cable (Don Smith) enjoy a few brief moments of bliss on Bali Hai before he leaves on his mission.

S. L. STUDENT GOVERNMENT
presents
"CHAD AND JEREMY"
IN CONCERT
Wednesday, September 21st, 1966
S. L. C. Coliseum 8:00 P. M.

The duo did a rendition of their favorite melodies.

Chad and Jeremy softly sing "Yesterday's Gone".

Switching from soft songs to peppy ones kept the attention of the students.

CHAD AND JEREMY

The first offering of Big Name Entertainment for the year was the popular duo Chad and Jeremy. The boys provided their own individual application of their own songs. These various special interpretations were highly successful with the people in the auditorium. Among the songs were "A Summer Song," "Willow Weep For Me," and "Yesterday's Gone."

The dynamic Miss Warwick sings her favorite melodies.

Monday, March 20, 1967
8:00 — 10:00 p. m.

Miss Warwick enjoyed dancing to the music while vocalizing.

One of the accompanists strums his instrument.

DIONNE WARWICK

The student government sponsored Dionne Warwick in the spring semester as the first of two shows. The show proved to be a success, and the response was great. The only complaint of the students was that the show was too short.

Ending her performance with a dainty bow, Miss Warwick left the stage amidst applause.

"What's it all about, Alfie?"

STUDENT GOVERNMENT
PRESENTS
IN CONCERT
The Lettermen
Wednesday, March 29, 1967
8:00 — 10:00 p. m.

The most impressive song the boys did was "I Believe," which they did without accompaniment.

Versatility was the keynote of the performance.

The final Big Name Show sponsored by Student Government was the Lettermen. Most students agreed that the popular singing trio was the best of the three shows of the year.

The Lettermen demonstrated their versatility as singers, and their humor as comedians.

The two and one-half hour show was a complete success, and many were sad when the group finally left.

Certainly, the majority of the students would have gladly taken the performers up on their invitation to travel as their audience.

Among the numbers were "Grenada," "More," "To Dream the Impossible Dream," "Softly," "Kansas City," "I Believe" and the ever-popular, "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Among the various numbers was the popular medley, "Groups Are Nothing New."

Bob stirred the audience participation with "Kansas City."

Tony and the haunting "Granada".

Organizations

As a supplement to the regular curriculum and numerous athletic teams, Southeastern offers many other extra-curricular activities to all students.

These activities are offered in order to make a student's college career a more pleasant one while, at the same time, developing fully the various qualities a student possesses.

Activities in the field of music, journalism, service organizations, and many others are open to all students desiring membership.

Membership in all organizations is on a voluntary basis. A good scholastic rating is the only requisite common to all the organizations.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Bill Brady, President of SG, conducts Senate meetings.

The Student Government of Southeastern Louisiana College, of which each regularly enrolled student is automatically a member, is the principal organization of the entire student body. The Student Senate, the governing agency of the student body, meets every Wednesday night to legislate and administer the affairs of the students.

The Senators represent each organization and dormitory on campus.

Don Harper, Dean of Men, answers questions of Senator Monteleone.

Secretary Margaret Sutton busily takes notes at every meeting.

Questions are raised as a new amendment is proposed.

Senate advisers, Drs. Rhodes and Helenaik, left to right, front row, and Dean Chandler, Dean of Student Life, second row, listen intently to Senate's suggestions.

Senators listen as new Senate policies are suggested.

Senator Clyde Harrelson takes notes during a meeting.

Senator Larry Frederick comments on a Senate proposal.

Student Government Officers, 1966-67: President, Bill Brady; Vice-President, Stan St. Pierre; Co-ed Vice-President, Judy Byrne; Secretary, Margaret Sutton; Treasurer, Bert Gray; Parliamentarian, John Baiamonte; Loan Administrator: Ronnie Bertucci.

Student Government on the Southeastern campus is composed of an Executive Council, a Senate, a Judicial Board, and a group of Freshman Associates.

Members of the Executive Council are the three officers elected by the student body: the president, the vice-president, and the co-ed vice-president; and also the officers appointed by the president: the secretary, the treasurer, the parliamentarian, and the loan administrator. The council meets weekly with the faculty advisers selected by the Senate.

JUDICIAL BOARD

The Judicial Board, elected by the Student Senate, is vested with the judicial powers of the Student Government. The Board interprets the Constitution, adjudicates all constitutional questions and hears appeals from the election board. It also has power to recommend to the President of the College suitable punishment for any student whose conduct will bring discredit upon the Student Body of the College.

FRESHMAN ASSOCIATES

Several associates are chosen annually from incoming freshmen presenting outstanding high school records in both studies and activities. These invaluable assistants are required to work weekly in the Student Government office.

CLASS OFFICERS

The Freshman Class, the Sophomore Class, the Junior Class, and the Senior Class are organizations of students based on the year of their entrance to the college. Students are automatically members, and active participation is traditional.

Class officers are elected at the beginning of the fall semester for the year. The classes meet individually and elect a president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, and a sweetheart. The presidents of the classes serve as members of the Student Senate.

The organizations sponsor dances and other campus activities. The Senior Class annually gives a gift to the College.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

B. S. U. Chapel

Southeastern Louisiana College Baptist Student Union was organized in 1937 with twenty-two present for the first organizational meeting. The purpose of the group is to enlist every Baptist student on campus in the program of the Baptist Church and to insure Christian growth through a well planned program of activities on the campus.

In its basic expression, the program of the BSU is the program of the Church. In addition, however, the BSU offers the student an opportunity for adding the Christian factor to his college education. Through conventions, retreats, daily worship experience, study programs and social activities, the student is confronted with the Christian faith.

CANTERBURY ASSOCIATION

The Canterbury Association is the Episcopal Church at SLC, and it is open to all interested students and faculty. Its purpose is to provide a context in which students and faculty can grow in their understanding of the Christian Faith and of its relevance to their lives at the same time that they are acquiring knowledge in other fields. Such growth takes place not only by study, but by participation in worship, social, and service activities. The new, modern Episcopal College Center on West Dakota Street has a chapel, lounge, meeting room, and chaplain's office.

GAMMA DELTA

Students of the Lutheran faith on Southeastern's campus belong to Gamma Delta, the International Association of Lutheran College Students. Gamma Delta endeavors to conserve and develop Christian faith and to encourage Christian action among college students through a program based on knowledge and service.

The specific purposes of the club are: to foster spirituality through study of the Bible, to disseminate the scriptural philosophy of life, and to maintain and increase local and intercampus fellowship among students of the Lutheran faith. Zeta Kappa, the local Gamma Delta Chapter, strives to accomplish these goals with over one hundred and seventy other Gamma Delta chapters.

HOME ECONOMICS CHAPTER

The purposes of the chapter are as follows: 1) to bind home economics students together while they are in school; 2) to give them knowledge and practice in self-initiated group work; 3) to provide them with a true vision of home economics while offering friendship; 4) to live each day the ideals for which home economics stands.

The Home Economics Chapter is the college students' branch of the Louisiana Home Economics Association and the American Home Economics Association which she may join upon graduation from college. The local chapter was founded on the SLC campus in 1941.

GLEANERS CLUB

The Gleaners Club is an agricultural organization of Southeastern. The primary aim of the Club is to further the significance of agriculture in our community and the school. Most important of the yearly activities is the horse show during the spring semester and agricultural awards banquet. At this time presentations are made to the outstanding citizen of our community in various fields of agriculture.

MODERN DANCE GROUP

The Modern Dance Group is an organization sponsored by the Department of Health and Physical Education. This group began in the fall semester of 1949 under the direction of Miss Dorothy Hoyle and has continued since the fall of 1951 under the direction of Miss Dorothy Hoyle and has continued since the fall of 1951 under the direction of Mrs. Katie Friedrichs. Its purpose is to promote and further dance activities for men and women of SLC. This is a performing organization of service to organizations on campus and to the surrounding communities. This organization is open to all students. It is also open to faculty and former graduates of the college with the consent of the dance group Executive Board.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYERS

National Collegiate Players is a nation-wide, honorary drama organization founded in 1922. It was created to stand as a college unit in national movements for the betterment and welfare of drama and the theatre in the United States, and to raise the standards of college and university theatres by recognizing the most worthy individual and group efforts in the creative arts of the theatre. To be eligible, students must achieve excellence in all phases of theater — on stage and in the classroom — as well as achieving in other scholastic fields.

NEWMAN ORGANIZATION

The Newman Organization is the Catholic Student Organization on Southeastern's campus. It is open to students of any faith, however, and strives to establish a feeling of Christianity among all. While primarily a religious organization, this group also sponsors educational and social activities. During 1966-67, among other various projects, members of this organization taught religion to the mentally retarded, made weekly visits to Parkview Nursing Home, had a Christmas Party for an underprivileged family, entered a float in the Homecoming Parade, and sponsored its annual Rebel Ball for the campus. Also, this year the Newman Organization of SLC hosted the Gulf States Province Convention in New Orleans.

Mass is celebrated daily in the chapel at St. Albert's Catholic Student Center.

PHI MU ALPHA SINFONIA

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity of America is a National Professional music fraternity which was founded in 1898 at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, Massachusetts. The four basic principles upon which the fraternity was founded and upon which it still exists, are: (1) To advance the cause of music in America, (2) To foster the mutual welfare and brotherhood of students of music, (3) To develop the truest fraternal spirit among its members, (4) To encourage loyalty to the Alma Mater. The Southeastern chapter, Delta Omega, represents the oldest National fraternity in existence on this campus.

PI GAMMA MU

Pi Gamma Mu the National Social Science Honor Society is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies, and is affiliated with the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

To be eligible for membership a student of at least junior standing must have twenty semester-hours of social science with a "B" average therein and be in the top ten percent of the total upperclassmen. The Society endeavors to fix in the membership a life-interest in the study of human association and in the solution of social problems. And thereby make its contribution to the enlightenment of the world.

PROSCENIUM PLAYERS

Proscenium Players is the newly reorganized drama club at Southeastern. It was established to cultivate and further students' interest in drama. The chief function of the organization is to provide a core of trained students from which the directors can choose their actors and backstage workers. These students should be the nucleus of the campus productions especially in the areas concerning the construction and painting of the flats, the sewing of the costumes, and make-up and hair design.

STUDENT LOUISIANA TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

A professional association for college and university students who are preparing for a career in education, members of S.L.T.A. are persons who have committed themselves, at least tentatively, to a teaching career. Through active participation in the various activities sponsored by the Gladney J. Tinsley chapter on the Southeastern campus, the members further their goals of better understanding, communications, and social relations. It also serves to promote respect for teaching as a profession.

STUDENT INTERFAITH COUNCIL

The Student Interfaith Council is a regulatory body made up of three representatives from each of the faith groups and three faculty advisors. The organization seeks to promote and encourage religious activities, service projects and other events in which all of the groups can participate and through which a concerted religious emphasis can be made on the Southeastern campus.

SOCIAL SCIENCE SOCIETY

The Social Science Society is an organization which strives to promote fellowship, learning, service, and participation in the social sciences, to stimulate interest and discussion in current events, and to institute an effective program of free discussion and analysis. To be eligible for membership in the Society a student must be a regularly enrolled student in the College in good standing, have an overall "C" average or better, be interested in the social sciences and have earned twelve hours of social sciences with an overall "C" average or better, and have served for one semester as an associate member.

Students relax and study at Wesley.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is The Methodist Church on the college campus and its purpose is to be the church through worship, study, and fellowship. It is aimed to serve both students and faculty with freedom of discussion and acceptance of all who come in Christ. The Wesley Foundation seeks to serve primarily Methodist, but all who wish to join the fellowship and activities are welcome. Wesley Foundation is located directly across from White Hall.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP Seated, left to right: Linda Gubert, Anna Herbert, Francis Ann Wooley, Linda Farnsworth, Cynthia LeBlanc, Harriet Mooney. Standing, Left to right: Herbert Courtney, Jay Reid, Roger Worth, Mrs. E. H. Knight, Director; Charles L. Andrews, George Kassavetis, and Lee Perkins.

The center provides a place for relaxation after classes.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

In 1948, the John Knox Society became Westminster Fellowship of S.L.C. The primary purpose of Westminster Fellowship is to minister to the total academic community; one of the chief goals of the organization is to bring the students, faculty, and administration together in a worshiping fellowship. The group sponsors a Freshman party, a Thanksgiving banquet, and a spring retreat in addition to regular Thursday night meetings. Fun and fellowship are a major part of our everyday activities.

HOUSE COUNCILS

CARDINAL NEWMAN HALL

Since its establishment by the diocese of Baton Rouge in 1964, Cardinal Newman Hall has been open to all students of Southeastern Louisiana College. One of its main objectives is to emphasize the qualities which Cardinal Newman himself considered essential to the embodiment of a student on the university level. Cardinal Newman Hall has been instrumental in initiating the dorm blazer and emblem for "Dress - Up Day," a formal Christmas Banquet, and most recently, an annual Award Banquet for the most outstanding men of the dorm.

McKNEELY HALL

In September, 1963, the McKneely Hall Honor Dormitory was opened for students wishing an ideal dormitory for intensive study. Residents are chosen based on their proven record of scholarship and extracurricular activities. McKneely's ideal location and one or two students per room make it an excellent place to live and further one's education. The trend toward the honor system is developing responsibility and maturity in the men of McKneely. In the service of its occupants the current House Council has adopted a coat of arms, printed the first campus dormitory newsletter, secured a study room, and has arranged the annual Christmas Party and homecoming decorations.

NEW MEN'S RESIDENCE HALL HOUSE COUNCIL

The newest residence hall and house council for men on campus is that of the New Men's Residence Hall. Established in the fall of 1966, when the dorm first opened, the members of Holloway-Smith and Tucker Hall House Councils who moved into the new dorm served as a nucleus for the new dorm's governing body. After an organizational meeting, applications were taken from dorm members interested in serving on the new house council. Once the council reached full strength the members next went about drafting a Constitution for the residence hall. It is the goal of this new house council to lay a solid foundation of functioning and cooperation upon which future house councils may build.

TUCKER HALL

Tucker Hall sponsors a Homecoming Open House, Christmas Party, and Basketball Open House annually. Aside from these duties, the House Council serves as a judicial authority in Tucker Hall. Additionally, the House Council serves coffee and doughnuts during exam week to promote a striving for academic excellence in Tucker Hall.

Seated, left to right: Wayne Sterba, Parliamentarian; Bobby Jones, David Godchaux, Pres., Jim Barber, Vice-Pres., Eric Landry, Sec. Standing: Dale Dewall, Mike Lee, Bruce Shelton, Al Martiney.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Founded: Barnard College, 1897

Colors: Cardinal and White

Flowers: The Jackquemot Rose

Friendship is the foundation of Alpha Omicron Pi. Formerly Kappa Rho Sorority, in January 1963, AOPi became a part of the S.L.C. campus, thus adding the name of Kappa Tau Chapter to the many others of AOPi throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Friendship is the promise of Alpha Omicron Pi. Besides individual sorority functions, Kappa Tau is continually active in various S.L.C. events such as sponsoring the Homecoming parade and the campus Christmas dance, and participating in all other campus activities.

As AOPi sisters, each member finds their promise has a deep meaning that will bind its members to the organization for life. Tolerance, patience, and compassion, to see more clearly and to judge more wisely the practices by which AOPi has succeeded in the goals of attaining the best in scholarship, character, leadership, service, and sisterhood.

ALPHA SIGMA TAU

Founded: Ypsilanti, Michigan, 1899

Colors: Emerald green and gold

Flower: Yellow rose.

Alpha Sigma Tau is the oldest national sorority on campus. The sorority was originally founded by sixteen girls on the Michigan State Normal College Campus. On February 17, 1940, the Phi Chapter was installed on the Southeastern Louisiana College Campus.

The purpose of Alpha Sigma Tau is to promote character, social graces, and cultural development of its members. Every year is filled with school-wide projects and personal activities. An annual Spring Formal, participation in the Homecoming Parade, decorating for the annual Alumni Banquet, taking part in Greek Week activities and sponsoring the Sorority Scholarship Plaque are among the school-wide activities. Personal activities include, a Founder's Day Banquet, a Christmas party, a Parent's Tea, and various other parties and social services. This year Alpha Sigma Tau was happy to be recognized as the Most Outstanding Greek Organization on campus during the annual Greek Week activities.

PHI MU

Founded: Wesleyan College, March 4, 1852

Colors: Pink and white

Flower: Rose carnation

Phi Mu Fraternity, second oldest national social Sorority in the United States, was founded at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia, March 4, 1852, and has at present 96 active chapters. The annual events which we sponsor include the Valentine's Dance, the Song Fest during Greek Week, and participation in Homecoming activities. Also for Homecoming we sell confetti, giving all proceeds to U.S.S. Hope. Alpha Psi also gives a Christmas Party for the children in a nearby school for the mentally retarded and the pledges sponsor a party for the old folks during the Christmas season. Besides these events, Phi Mu has programs such as the "big-little" sister program which helps to establish closer relationships within the Fraternity.

Some Phi Mus and friends decorate for their annual Valentine Dance.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Founded: Farmville, Virginia, 1898

Colors: Royal Purple and White

Flower: Purple Violet

Sigma Sigma Sigma, founded at Longwood College, has sixty-five active chapters. The SLC chapter was established May 1, 1964, when Beta Chi Sorority became Gamma Mu chapter. Others in Louisiana are at Northwestern, USL, and Loyola.

The purpose of the sorority is to develop the attributes of Christian womanhood: Love, loyalty, fidelity, and service. By developing strong bonds of perpetual friendship, encouraging scholastic achievement, demanding high ethical and moral standards, and providing opportunities for leadership and unselfish service, Tri Sigma seeks to develop women who contribute effectively to campus, community, and country.

The major campus activity of Tri Sigma is Greek Week, which promotes Greek spirit and fosters harmony.

KAPPA DELTA TAU

Founded: Southeastern Louisiana College, 1931

Colors: Red and White

Flowers: Carnations

Kappa Delta Tau, the oldest fraternity on the Southeastern campus, was originally organized as the Stags in 1931. In 1937 it was reorganized as a local fraternity and chose the name of Kappa Delta Tau. The fraternity strives to promote higher scholastic standings, better social standards, and brotherhood among men students at Southeastern Louisiana College.

The fraternity traditionally sponsors the Homecoming Dance, and its members conduct the election for the Homecoming Queen. The members again are seen serving the college as ushers at graduation ceremonies. Besides sponsoring many social events for its members, the fraternity holds an annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Founded: Central Missouri State College, 1920

Colors: Blue and white

Flowers: White Rose

Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity was founded to promote the highest ideals of manhood, brotherhood, and citizenship. STG also seeks to promote social, scholarly, cultural, recreational, and benevolent fraternal accomplishments among its members, both undergraduate and graduate.

Phi chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma was established at Southeastern Louisiana College on May 27, 1939, and was the first National Fraternity on campus. STG is well represented in all intramural sports and won both the pledge and members divisions in football this fall. The outstanding social event sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma is the annual White Rose Ball in the spring semester. At this dance the fraternity sweetheart is crowned "The White Rose of Sigma Tau Gamma." This past fall the fraternity sponsored a Christmas Toy Drive to help brighten the hearts of some children on Christmas morning.

Members of Sig Tau collect toys for distribution by the firemen.

Tau Kappa Epsilon International Fraternity was founded at Wesleyan University by five men whose principles were based on a strong emphasis of the character and personal worth of the individual. Currently TKE has 221 Chapters including a chapter in Canada.

TKE's Theta Nu chapter was founded on May 6, 1961 at Southeastern. They sponsor the homecoming bonfire, a variety show for the retarded children, the tricycle race and tug of war during Greek Week, and a drive for the March of Dimes as a part of helpweek.

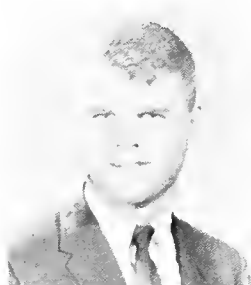

Due to the support of the Order of Diana and friends, TKE has been awarded the: volleyball championship, crosscountry run trophy, overall Greek Week trophy, the School Spirit Award for the past three years, and the Top Chapter Award of Louisiana for the five of its six years of existence.

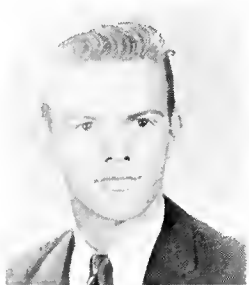

"Well, who goes on next," wonders TKE's pyramid building team.

THETA XI

Founded: Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, 1864
Colors: Blue and White
Flowers: Blue Iris

Theta Xi National Fraternity was founded 103 years ago and has been on the Southeastern campus since October 27, 1963.

The fall semester included a Champagne Rush Party, the traditional Champagne Homecoming Reception and a number of other social events. The SLC cheerleaders awarded Theta Xi the 1966-67 Spirit Stick for their efforts during football season.

In the spring there was a swamp party, a toga party, and the Founders' Day Banquet held at Kolb's in New Orleans. During Greek Week, Theta Xi took first in the Tricycle Race and the Song Fest as well as placing in all of the weeks events. Also for the spring semester, Miss Betty Reymond was crowned Sweetheart of Theta Xi.

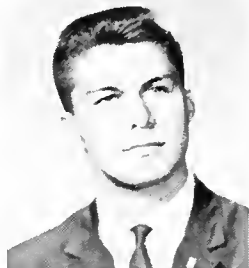

Theta Xi National and the local Beta Pi chapter stress the theme of brotherhood as the main objective of all fraternity functions.

Member and pledge alike take the opportunity to relax when they can.

PUBLICATIONS

Southeastern's publications are a vital part of the college. The weekly editions of the Lion's Roar keep the students informed while the annual edition of the Le Souvenir gives students a permanent picture record of the college year. The Office of Publications, in addition to advising the student publications, releases news stories about Southeastern to the area news media.

SPORTS

The Lions started and ended the 1966 season like true champs, but bad breaks and injuries pushed their season mark down to 3-6. However, the grid campaign for the Green and Gold was a record-breaking one, with 23 records falling during the season, 17 in the passing category.

Seven of the seventeen passing marks broken can be attributed directly to senior signal-caller Bobby Cotten, including most passes attempted (41) and completed (20) in a single game, most yards passing in a single game (351), and most yards gained passing for a season (1023).

The Lions won one Gulf States Conference game during their campaign, that win coming over Northeast in the last thirty-nine seconds of play, causing the Lions to share the GSC cellar with Louisiana Tech., both with 1-4 conference marks.

Five players were honored as all-GSC selections in two post-season polls. In the La. Sports Writers Poll, Duane Floyd, Lion pass-catching sensation, and Charlie Whitney, halfback for the Green and Gold were named to the offensive selections, while Billy Andrews took defensive linebacker honors.

In the Coaches' choices, Andrews repeated on defense and Floyd on offense, while guard Ronnie Frederic took an offensive post and Fred Gary, a senior guard, was named on defense.

Charlie Whitney (left) SLC's Most Valuable Player for 1966, was named for the second time to the GSC team. An offensive half-back, Whitney was co-recipient of the Captains' Award and named to the LSWA squad. The senior from Luther is a three-year letterman.

Fred Gary (right), a senior guard from Jennings, was named to the coaches' all-league team and to the GSC team for the first time. Gary is a four year letterman.

Ronnie Frederic, Co-recipient of the Sportsmanship Award, was named for the third year to the GSC team. Also named to the coaches' all-league team, Frederic is a four-year letterman from St. Amant.

Billy Andrews, named to the GSC team for the second year, was the co-recipient of the Sportsmanship Award and the Captains' Award. Andrews, senior center from Clinton, is a four-year letterman. He was also selected in the 11th round of the pro draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Duane Floyd, SLC's all time leading pass receiver, was named to the 1966 GSC team for the first time this year. A two-year letterman, Floyd is a sophomore end from Baton Rouge.

Sullivan breaks away from a host of S. Miss. players.

In their first outing SLC showed their potential against the nation's number one defensive team in the major college ranks. SLC went ahead early in the contest on their first series of downs, 6-0, and led at half by 9-7. On the first play of the second half after a Lion fumble, Southern Mississippi took a commanding 15-7 lead, but the Lions attempted to tie the game eight minutes later after a TD toss from Cotten to terminal Duane Floyd. The attempt failed, and the Lions fell, 15-13.

Defensive Line Coach Bob Mahfouz

Southwestern took its first win over the Lions since 1950, a span of fifteen years of superiority by the Lions. In those years, only two contests had been tied and the Lions taking the rest. After a scoreless first quarter, the Bulldogs broke loose with twenty points in the second period to virtually put the Lions out of the game. Early in the second half, the Lions closed the gap to 20-6, but USL fought back to 27-6 at the end of the period and a final 35-6 decision over the Lions.

Trinity of San Antonio, Texas took a 6-0 halftime lead over the Lions on two field goals, but the Lions came back in the second half to take a 7-6 lead as Charlie Whitney scored on a one-yard plunge after a fumble recovery on the Trinity 24. But Trinity came back after the Lions were forced to punt from their own six. Seven plays later Trinity went ahead on a touchdown and two-point conversion, 14-7. Later in the fourth period the Lions drove to the Trinity 10, but a fumble handed the ball and the game to Trinity.

Southeastern garnered its first victory of the young season, downing hapless Louisiana College, 49-0. The Lions went ahead in the first period in what appeared to be a tight contest, but the Lions added fourteen more for a 21-0 half-time lead. In the third quarter, the Lions matched their previous score with twenty-one more points, and added seven in the last quarter to take their initial win. Southeastern's defense stood out in the game, holding the Wildcats to a -16 yards rushing, while the Lions drove for 257 on the ground.

TOUCHDOWN!

Five thousand fans jammed into Strawberry Stadium on a cold, rainy Saturday night, but over half missed the game as Southeastern came from behind in the last 39 seconds to take its win. Leading 6-3 at the end of the third quarter, the Indians knotted the score at 6-6 and then went ahead 13-6 with 1:43 left in the contest. But as the Lions got the ball, an intercepted pass gave the Indians what looked like a sure win with 1:03 showing on the scoreboard. The Lions held and took possession with 39 seconds left, and drove 80 yards in seven plays, climaxed by a four-yard toss to Johnny O'Neal from Bobby Cotten. The two-point pass to Whitney was good, and the Lions downed the Indians 14-13 in a Cinderella finish.

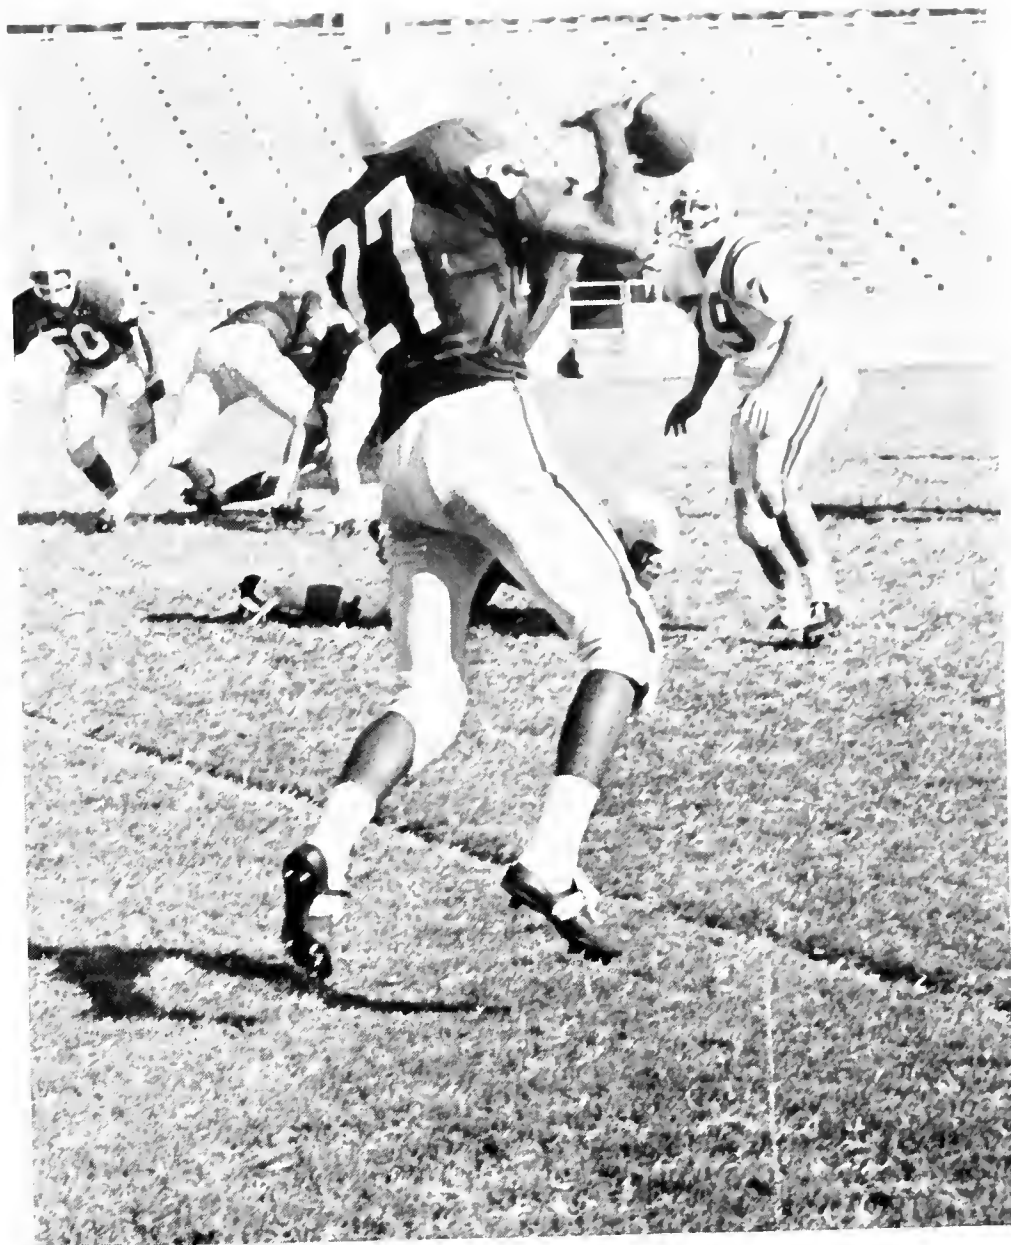

O'Neal receives pass for crucial touchdown.

SLC 6

Louisiana Tech 13

La. Tech won its first and only game of the season, ending SLC's three-game winning streak. The Bulldogs took a first-quarter lead 6-0 on two field goals, mainly because of inferior play by both teams, and stretched that margin to 13-0 at half-time. The Lions scored on the first play of the fourth quarter on a David LeSage keeper. But the PAT was off and SLC still trailed 13-6 at the final buzzer.

Southeastern took a 2-0 first quarter lead in what turned out to be the highest scoring game ever for an SLC eleven, but the Goshawks took a 10-2 lead early in the second period. The Lions fought back to regain the lead at the half, 17-13. Three consecutive touchdowns put the Lions ahead 38-13 at the end of the third quarter, and at the end of a wild final quarter the scoreboard showed the Lions ahead, 52-33, for their third straight victory.

SLC 24

Northwestern 27

O'Neal gets stopped abruptly by a band of Demons.

Cotten makes a 33 yard gain on the Demons.

Southeastern ended the 1966 season as they had started it 10 weeks before, like a powerhouse. Northwestern, rated the number one small college team in many polls, was stunned at the might of the Lions. The Lions took a first quarter lead 14-7 on a pass and a run by Bobby Cotten, pushing the lead to 24-14 at the half. But the powerful Demon defense came alive in the second half to hold the Lions scoreless while the offense chopped SLC's lead to 24-21 and forged ahead 27-24 with 45 seconds remaining. The Lions charged back, but a field goal attempt from the 38-yard line fell short and the Lions lost the contest, 27-24.

Cotten prepares for a hand off to O'Neal.

McNeese 28

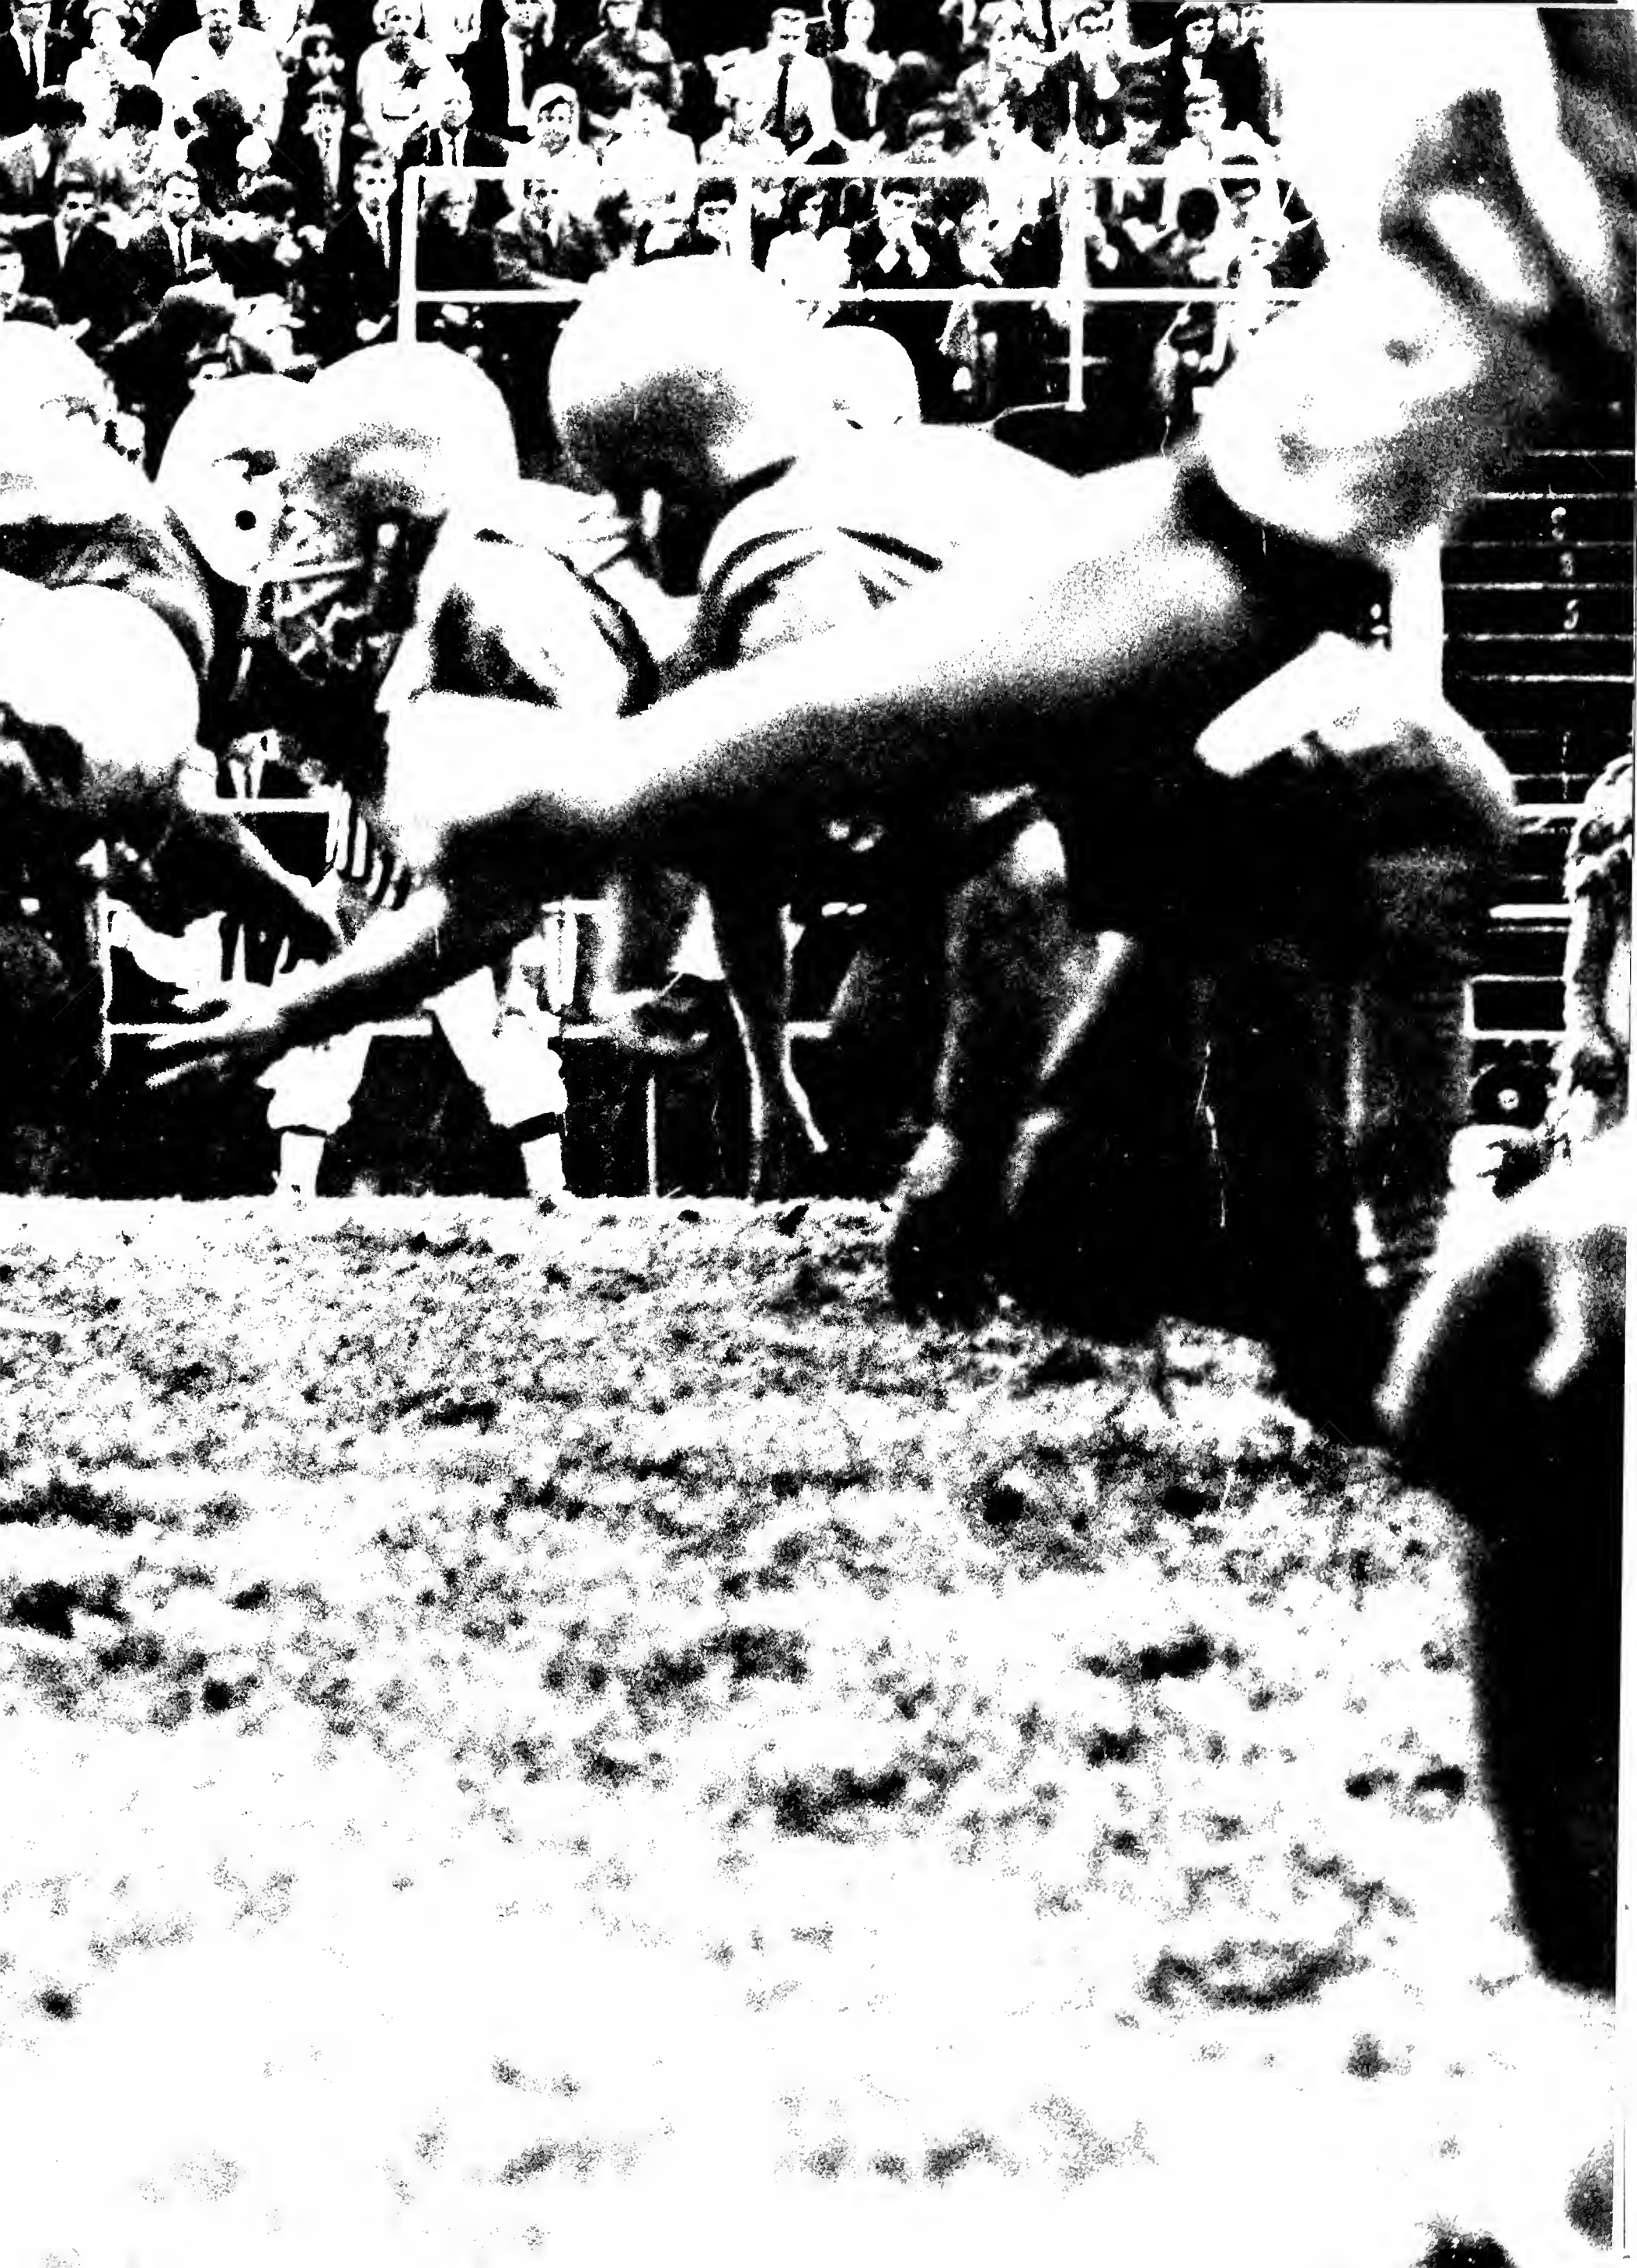

Cotten makes his move as Whitney clears the way.

Homecoming 1966

The McNeese Cowboys, hoping for a GSC tie, scored early in the first quarter on their first series of downs, pushing that lead to 14-6 by halftime. After a scoreless third quarter, the Cowboys dampened the homecoming fans' spirits as they pushed their lead to 28-6 with 8:22 left in the contest to ice the game. The Lions pushed as far as the Cowboy's 4, but could not capitalize on this assault until the final play of the game when LeSage hit Bobby Neilson for a TD.

O'Neal leaps high to receive pass.

MARCHING BAND

Homecoming Parade—Downtown Hammond.

SLC Marching Band

THE MARCHING LIONS, under new Director William Prescott, installed a collegiate - style, fast - stepping, high - strutting system, designed to make students, faculty and alumni acclaim them as the Pride of Louisiana! The demands were great: incessant personal practice, hours on the practice field, perfecting of techniques, the pressures of performance. The band field was a stage for displays of courage, perseverance, dedication and pride in being a bandmember.

The varsity band, 48 selected bandmembers, provided spirit for all home basketball games and the spring football classic. They specialized in unique jazz arrangements.

Director Prescott brought to Southeastern a reputation for developing fine bands and a fierce pride in perfection. Some of this has rubbed off on the 1966 MARCHING LIONS!

COUNTRY

The lone spectator.

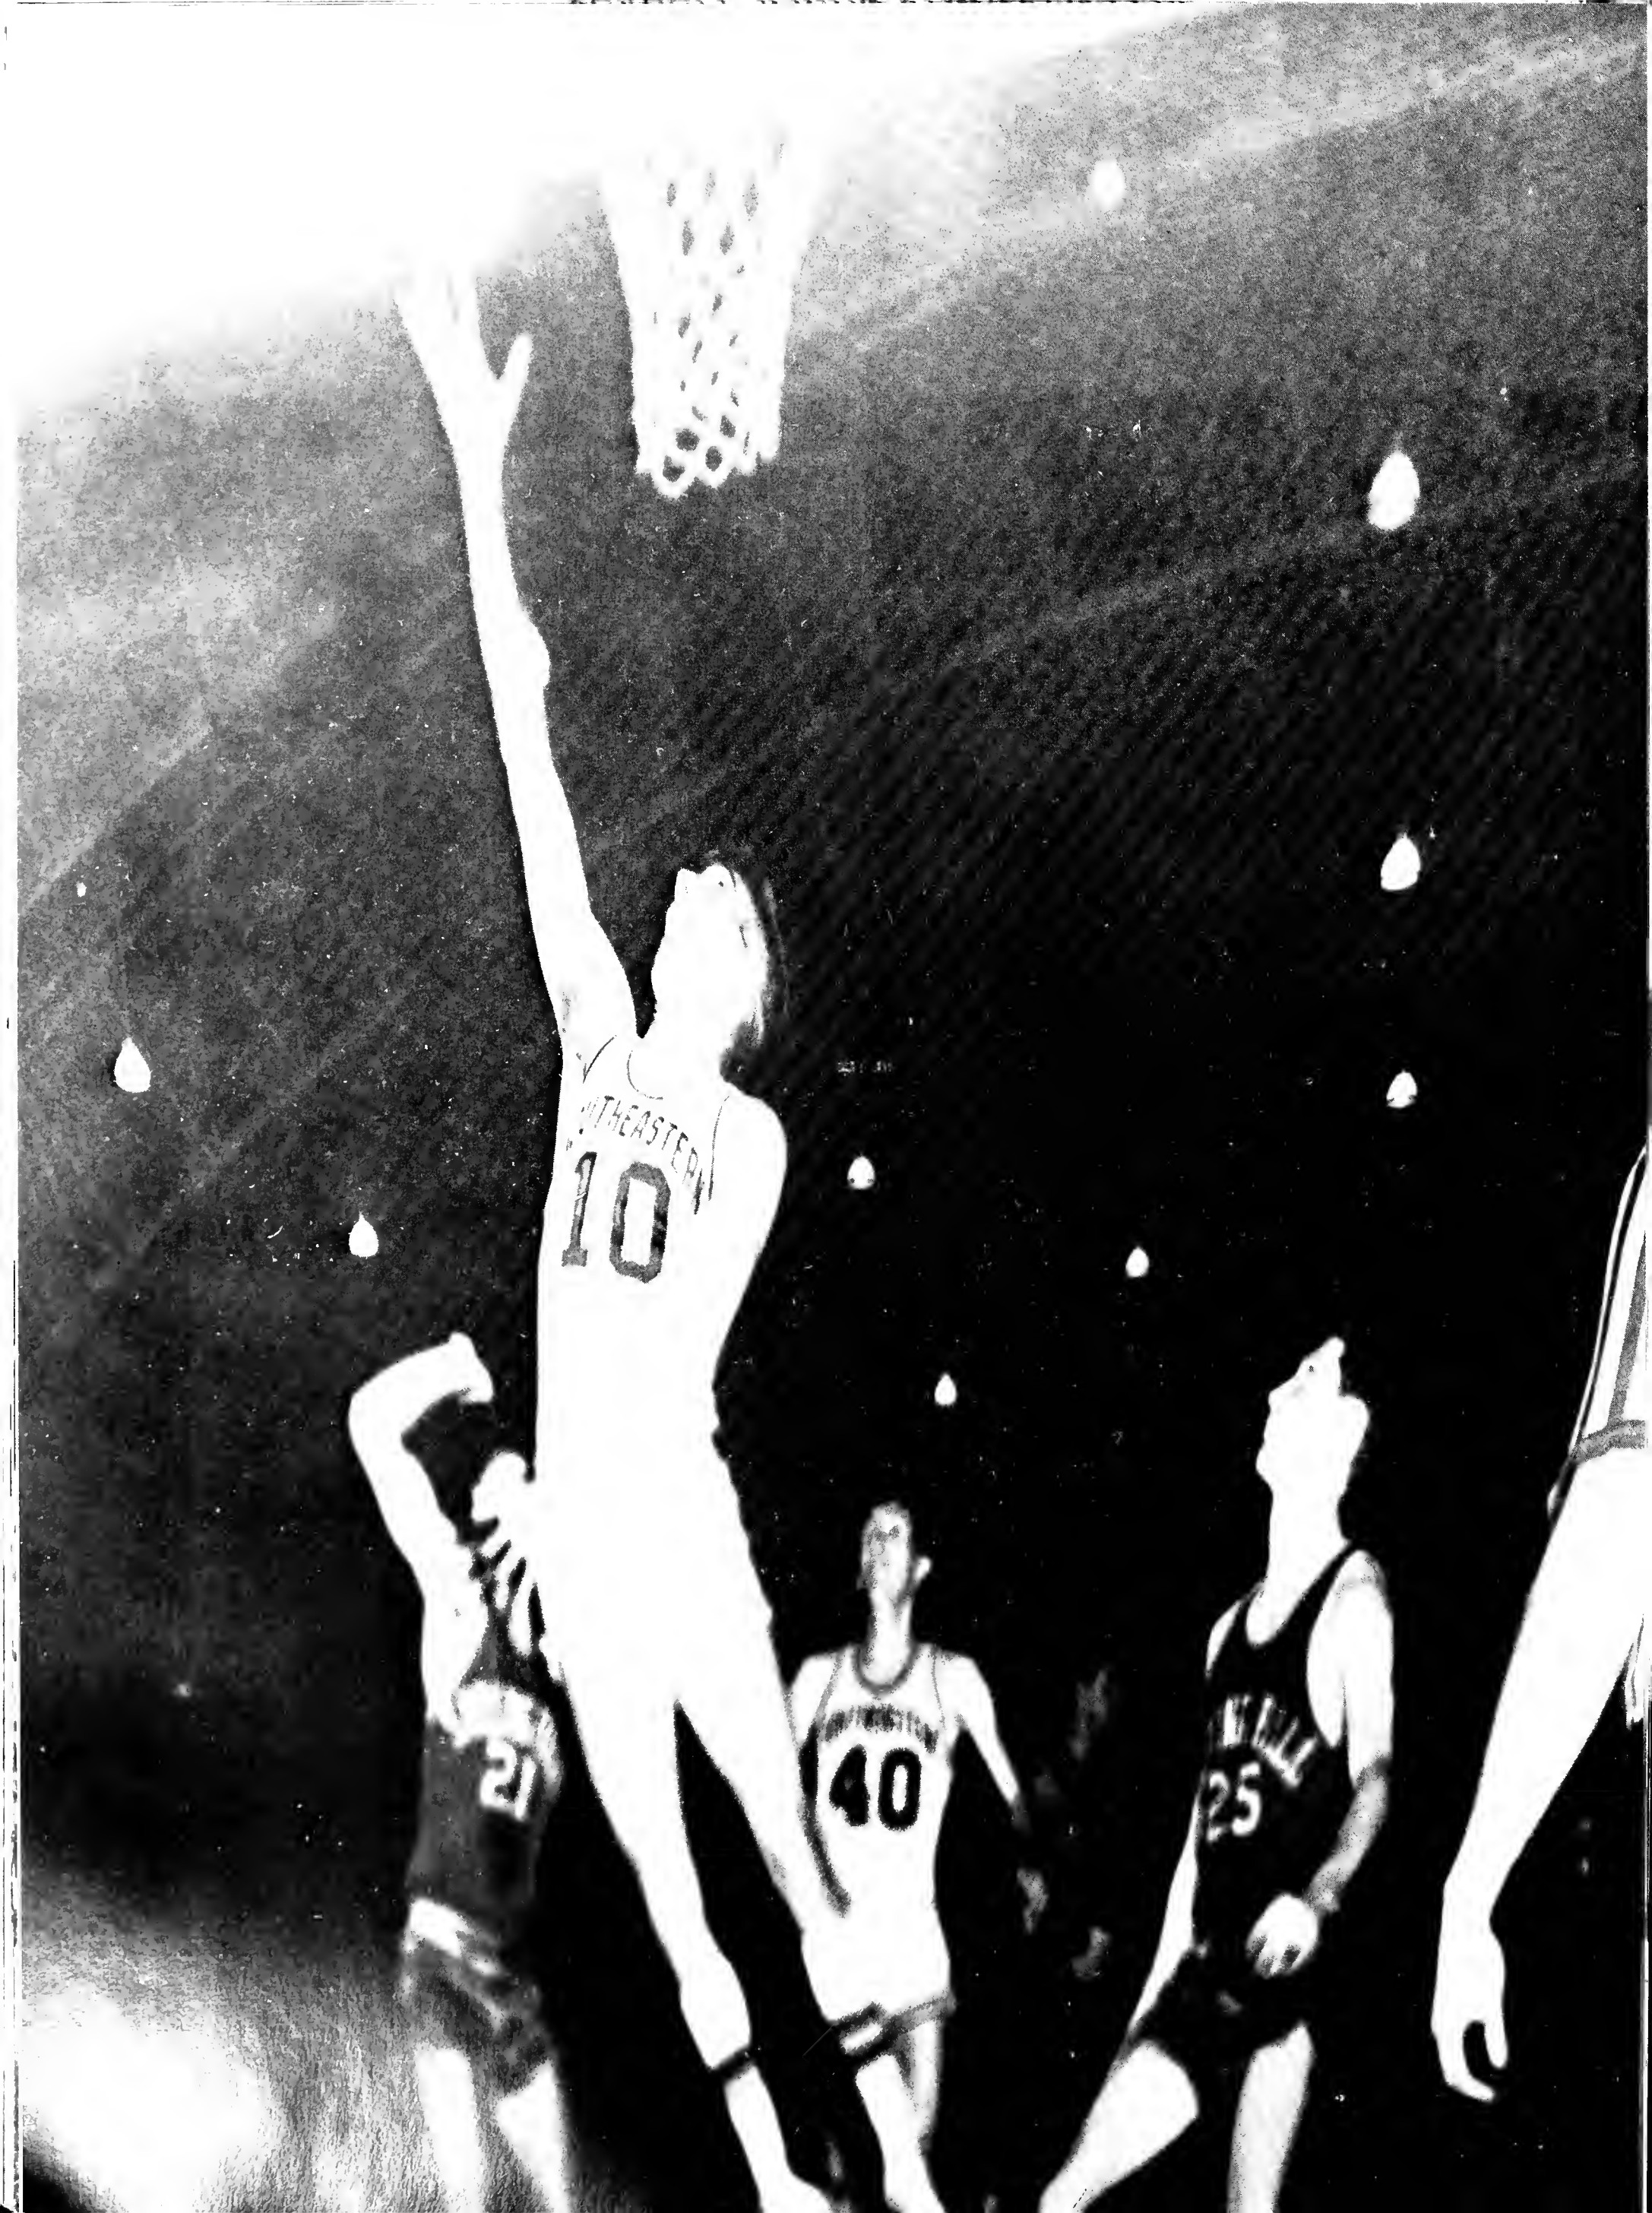

Southeastern's cross country squad, composed of eight of the best distance runners in the school, started their season with a bang with four straight wins, two over conference foes.

Coach Al LeBlanc built his hopes of winning the all-important Gulf States Conference meet when his team took a second place in a triangular meet with La. Tech and Southern Arkansas State and two straight wins following the Natchitoches showing.

In the New Orleans Athletic Club's Turkey Day run a week later, the Lions were let down and came in third in the big race just two weeks before the conference tilt.

In the conference meet in Natchitoches, the Lions met the University of Southwestern La. for the first time, and found their power overwhelming. The Green and Gold took the third slot in the meet behind the Bulldogs and La. Tech.

Competing for SLC through the season were Billy Brousse, Joe Temple, John Caillouette, Shirley Littell, Pete Soutullo, Tony Franovich, Jim Camhout, and John Burleson.

The 1966-67 Season

Despite a final 11-12 tabulation in the won-lost column this year, the Lions of Southeastern garnered national fame and glory.

Starting off strong by downing Louisiana State and the University of Southern Mississippi in two of their five straight wins, the Lions won recognition by being named to the Associated Press top twenty ratings in small college ranks.

Coach Luther Marlar's hoopsters ran their record to 8-2, dropping two conference battles to Northwestern and McNeese, but then the tide turned as the Lions dropped eight straight games before they could muster a win.

By the time the Lions awoke from their dazed playing, their conference mark stood at 1-8, far behind the field. Only two conquests over hapless Nicholls State kept the Lions from falling into the Gulf States Conference cellar.

The team also received, for last years squad, the first annual "Roomie" Wilson Sportsmanship Award, granted to the GSC team for outstanding sportsmanship on the court, off the court, and in the stands.

Profile of a Coach

Luther Marlar

COACH LUTHER W. MARLAR

Coach Luther Marlar has set a record at Southeastern that will long be admired by all future coaches. Marlar came to SLC in the 1947-48 basketball season and has since coached the Lions to seven winning seasons and three split seasons. In his two decades in Lionville, Marlar has posted a 226-253 won-loss record. His best season came in 1953-54 when his Lions copped a 22-10 record and took a berth in the National Association of Intercollegiate Activities playoffs. In the 1965-66 season he coached his team to a 17-8 record, the only time the Lions finished with less than 10 losses.

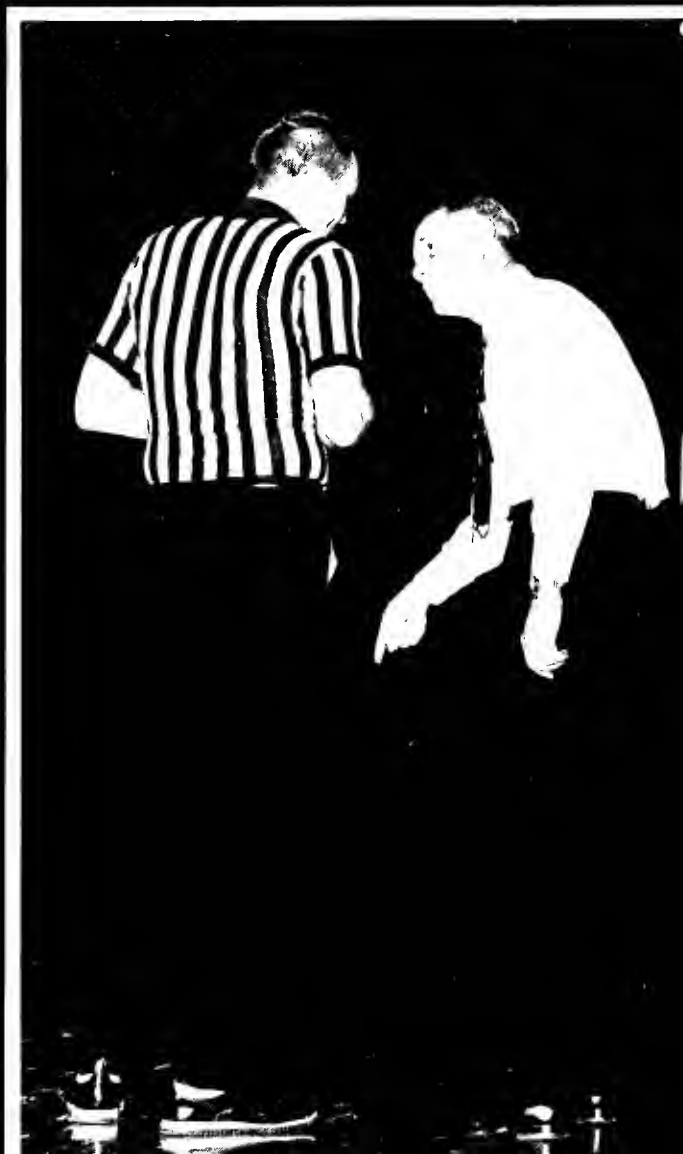

Coach Marlar has been recognized by the State Department, when he was chosen to coach a basketball team from the Sudan in the Olympics in 1960. The Lion mentor has also served as a member of the Executive Committee of the NAIA and has held other high offices in the organization.

For his contributions to the college, the Le Souvenir staff would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Coach Marlar, and wish him continued success for the future.

All American

C. A. Core

Synonymous with basketball at Southeastern is the name C. A. Core, a three-time member of the all-Gulf States Conference team, and once Most Valuable Player. Core is also a second team Little All-America choice selected by both the Associated Press and National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics; the first roundballer from Lionville to receive such honors.

In his second year, the six foot five inch center from Noblesville, Indiana, became the first Gulf States Conference player to hit over 1,000 points as a sophomore, netting a total of 1,037 in his first two years.

Core now holds twelve records on the official record books, including single game marks of the Most Throw Attempts (19); Most Rebounds (28); Most Points Scored (37); Most Free Throws Scored (15); and Most Assists (11), proving he is a team man.

The highly-touted cager also holds eight single-season records: Most Points Scored (536); Most Field Goals Scored (192); Most Free Throws Attempted (238); Most Rebounds (396); Average Points Per Game (22.3); Average Rebounds Per Game (15.9); and Most Points in Career (1525).

ROOMIE

Roomie—at 16 months—a shy, timid, winsome youngster

The 1962 Homecoming Game at SLC was very special, for on that day, a new member of the college was introduced. A 16-month-old lion cub was displayed as the new college mascot. The cub was donated to the college by Clifford Ourso, a Baton Rouge businessman.

The acquisition of a live mascot was merely a dream to the student body in the 1930's when the name "Lions" was chosen for the team. It seemed virtually impossible to obtain a live lion, but here he was.

Shortly after he was acquired, the cub was named Lobo by student vote. However, many thought that such a name was not appropriate for a young lion, so in 1964, he was renamed Roomie, in honor of the late Hollis R. "Roomie" Wilson, an ex-Lion gridman and a long-time member of the biological sciences department.

Roomie's present home is Audubon Park Zoo. He is transported to the college for home games.

A bored yawn seems to cover Roomie's feelings about most things in life.

GYMNASTICS CLUB

The Gymnastics Club, under the direction of Coach Earl Nolan, has developed from a tiny experimental nucleus into a blossoming organization dedicated to the principles of form and graceful execution of gymnastic feats.

The club was formed to provide for proper instruction in the fundamentals of gymnastics, to develop leadership ability, spirit of cooperation, group and individual participation in the sport.

This year, the group performed at several gymnastic meets, did half-time shows at several basketball games, and went on the road for high school demonstrations and clinics.

Membership in the club is open to any regularly enrolled student of the college.

Coach Luther Marlar's SLC golfing "five" ran into many problems this year on the links, falling to a 0-10 record in dual matches and taking no better than last place in the Gulf States Conference Match.

The Lions were 61 shots off the pace of the leader, USL, who won the event with an 878 score for the 54-hole tourney. SLC shot a 939.

Tommy Guerin was the SLC leader in the match, shooting a 54-hole total of 77-78-77-232, while teammates William Rase, Chuck Duke, and Greg Berthelot followed with 234, 239, and 242, respectively.

Spectators gather to watch the SLC team hard at work.

After two highly successful years of tennis at SLC from 1965-66, the Lions started like complete failures in 1967, but fought back desperately in the final event, the potent Gulf States Conference Match, to take a very respectable third place.

Harold "Speedy" Buquoi repeated his honor of the GSC No. 1 singles champion, while Jerry Medicus fought his way after a mediocre season to the No. 2 singles championship spotlight.

The two Lions also fought to the finals in the No. 1 singles, but were defeated to fall to third in their strong bid for a repeat championship.

TRACK AND FIELD

Eight new school records were established as the 1967 track and field performers capped the most successful cinder season in SLC history.

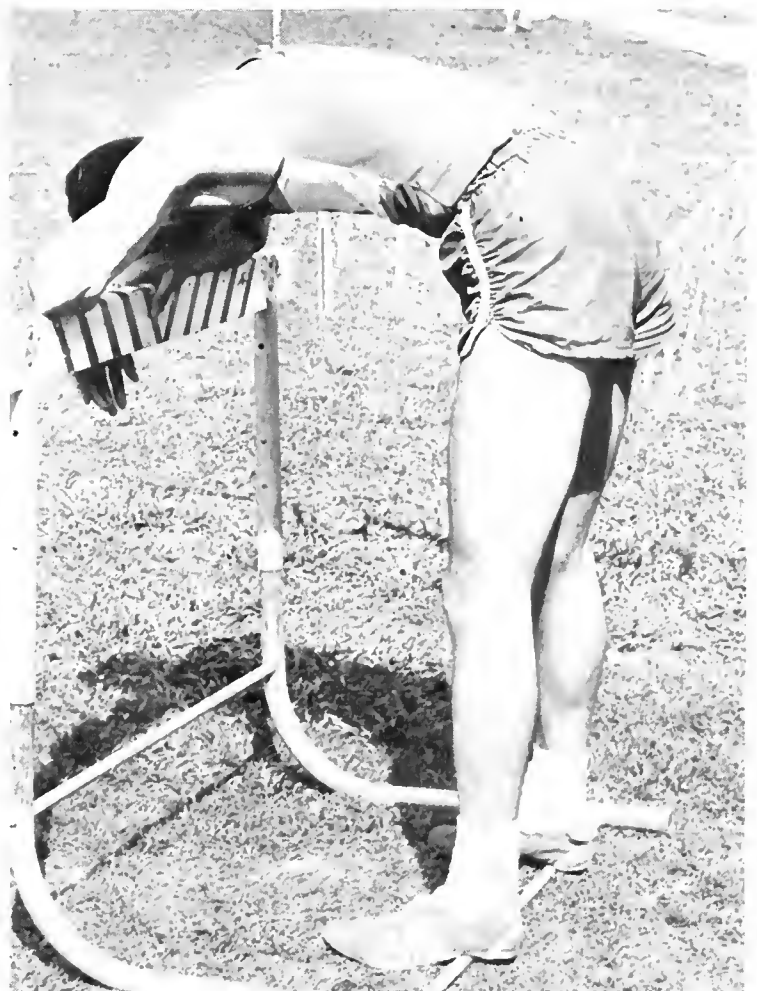

Coach Al Leblanc had his highest finish in the all-important Gulf States Conference Meet since coming to Southeastern, tallying 45 points for a third-place spot. His record for the season was 5-0 in dual meets, while the Lions took a first and a second in two triangular meets.

Sophomore Andy Thiel raced to a 9.3 unofficial wind-aided 100-yard dash, and tied the 220 standard with a 21.2 clocking. Senior Elliott Courtright also set new school standards, with a 47.7 440-yard dash.

Jim Camhout, SLC's undefeated half miler, shattered the Lion mark for the 880 with a best time of 1:50.7, while Joe Temple posted a 4:20.1 in the mile.

New records were also established in the triple jump and the pole vault. Tommy Arbour bettered his previous record, leaping 45-9 ³/₄, while Bobby Brown eclipsed his own standard in the pole vault with a 15'1" effort.

Shirley Littell also strided to a 15:27.4 clocking to take the three mile run, the first time that event has been run in the Gulf States Conference.

BASEBALL 1967

For four of the last five years, SLC had either won or tied for the Gulf States Conference baseball championship. The diamond men have never before placed less than fourth place in the conference, that coming only once.

But in the 1967 season, a few bad bounces and hard luck pushed the Lions down to a 11-22-1 record, by far the worst showing on the SLC record books, and into the GSC baseball cellar.

Coach Jim Waldrop entered the Lion baseball picture this year knowing a Herculean task awaited him, trying to replace a whole squad from last year which won a GSC co-championship. Only three starters from last year returned to the diamond for this season.

The Lions started out near the top, gaining a 6-4 conference mark before injuries started plaguing many of Waldrop's starters while the team was only one game off the pace. But the steam ran out and the baseball "9" dropped eight of the next nine GSC outings to fall by the wayside.

Waldrop will again face the task next year, searching for an answer to the problem of replacing his three top pitchers, Jack Vaughn, Geary McKenzie, and John Winters, as well as his top batters Earl Baron and Anthony Liuzza.

Aiding the individual in many ways is participation in intramural sports. Besides learning the necessity of teamwork, a person also comes to understand how to conduct himself in extra-curricular activities.

By participating with others, a person learns to accept the hardships of defeat and to accept the glory of victory in a humble manner.

Responsibility to oneself and to others is also realized by the athlete. He learns that it is his duty to perform his task well in order to bring victory to his team.

Finally an intramural participant learns to compete. He finds that all his life is most competitive and that he must give his all if he hopes to be tops in the final analysis. Approximately two thousand students take part in the Southeastern intramural program.

THE COLLEGE

DR. LUTHER H. DYSON

As Dr. Luther H. Dyson completes his fourteenth year as president of Southeastern Louisiana College, Le Souvenir extends a salute and an expression of gratitude for his insistence on high standards and his constant interest in improving Southeastern.

Dr. Dyson came to the College as dean of the Division of Education and dean of the college under the late Dr. Gladney J. Tinsley. He served as acting president upon Dr. Tinsley's death in 1951 until Dr. Barrow was appointed in 1952. Dr. Dyson assumed the presidency a year later.

Under his effective leadership, the College has moved forward, expanding its physical plant and strengthening its academic program until it has become one of the best small colleges in the South.

With the rapid growth of the College during Dr. Dyson's tenure, many new facilities have been constructed, with many more now under construction and plans for even more in the near future. Recently completed were a new addition to the cafeteria, a student union building, a men's dormitory, and a women's dormitory.

Dr. Dyson has always enjoyed the privilege of being one of the most popular of the College's presidents. He has watched and guided the academic and physical growth of the College through the years. He takes a genuine interest in the students and faculty and is admired as well as respected by both.

Dr. and Mrs. Dyson wave to the crowd in the Homecoming parade.

The Department of Accounting, until this year a division of Business Administration, has been organized to offer students a curriculum that covers a broad area of the business world. It helps students understand the necessity of a knowledge of accounting fundamentals to maintain a successful business operation.

The major program in Accounting consists of thirty-three approved semester hours. Courses are offered to students from other departments who wish to obtain a knowledge of the basic principles of accounting.
